Art Of David Lean:

The Art of David Lean Catherine Moraitis, 2004-01-01 David Lean Sandra Lean, Barry Chattington, 2001 David Lean's films were nominated for an astonishing 57 Academy Awards of which 27 won Oscars. He made unique movies on a grand scale with huge stories on vast canvases. He was aided by hundreds of technicians, thousands of extras, and the most talented actors in the world. Yet he singularly controlled this vast army, giving pleasure and inspiration to millions. His films reflected his own life: the single brooding perfectionist force to a great endeavour, whether they be Lawrence of Arabia, The Bridge on the River Kwai, Doctor Zhivago, or Brief Encounter. Collated by his widow Lady Sandra Lean, this is a highly personal account in text and images by the people that came into contact with David through his work and his private life. Thousands of words have been written about David Lean, the film director and the work he created. Yet until now, very little has been said about the man who sacrificed his private life for his art. Six marriages are proof of a man whose preferred family was the film crew, and whose personal life was always subservient to making films, many productions that touched the hearts of millions. In this fascinating book, the answers are presented in both text and pictures. David always said that a good book should contain really good pictures. That's all just bloody good pictures. Illustrated throughout with over 300 well-known and previously unpublished photographs which are complemented by David's inspiration letters, quotations, memorabilia, or an anecdote relating to his travels or his films. David Lean: An Intimate Portrait is a unique study containing a wealth of fascinating photography of a man who continues to entertain millions. The Films of David Lean Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Department of Film, 1970 David Lean Lydia Goehr, 2025-07-10 David Lean's extraordinary films work philosophically through the modern reproductive and transportive technologies of sight and sound through trains, planes, ships, and automobiles from one perspective, and through the modern technology of the radio and gramophone from another. Lean's musical motifs are known worldwide: Lara's theme in Zhivago, the Colonel Bogey March in Kwai, Estella's motif in Great Expectations, Rosy's motif in Ryan's Daughter, Lawrence's motif for his adventure in Arabia, and of course Rachmaninoff's pounding chords in Brief Encounter. When, however, Lean described his cutting of pictures as akin to how music flows through pictures, what sort of music or musicality had he in mind: a classical or popular music, or a way of using musical form to mix up the meaning and material of his films? Lydia Goehr's new book tracks the soundscape in Lean's films, not only through the musical scores composed for the films, but also and more through the technology of radio and gramophone that at the start of Lean's career were becoming indispensable household items for the home. The book begins and ends with a motif running from the early, more domestic films, locally situated in the English home, to the later, more extensive epics of colony, commonwealth, and empire. The fidelity/infidelity relationship defined by marriage extends to the loyalty/betrayal relationship regarding countries of war and peace, after which this relationship is extended to the witty British manner of making film as a perfected and not so perfected symphonic work of a great cutter's art. Here, as few other books on Lean have emphasized the influence of Noel Coward on Lean cannot be overestimated David Lean Kevin Brownlow, 2025-05-21 The life and its biographer provide a landmark work on the cinema Emerging from a childhood of nearly Dickensian darkness David Lean found his great success as a director of the appropriately titled Great Expectations There followed his legendary black and white films of the 1940s and his four film movie collaboration with Noel Coward Lean's 1955 film Summertime took him from England to the world of international moviemaking and the stunning series of spectacular color epics that would gain for his work twenty seven Academy Awards and fifty six Academy Award nominations All are classics including The Bridge on the River Kwai Lawrence of Arabia Doctor Zhivago and A Passage to India Kevin Brownlow a film editor in his own right and author of the seminal silent film trilogy initiated with The Parade's Gone By brings to Lean's biography an exhaustive knowledge of the art and the industry One learns about the making of movies as realized by a master but also of the highly personal costs of genius The troubled Quaker family from which Lean came influenced his relationship with his son his brother and his six wives Yet he showed in his work a deep understanding of humanity The vastness of this scholarly and entertaining enterprise is augmented by sixteen pages of scenes from Lean's color films thirty two pages from his black and white movies and throughout the text a vast number of photographs from his life and location work David Lean Howard Maxford, 2014-10-30 Oscar winning director David Lean was responsible for some of the most enduring images in British cinema including the romantic clinches between Trevor Howard and Celia Johnson in Brief Encounter and Pip's memorable dash across the marshes in Great expectations Lean became renowned for his visual epics painting the cinematic screen in such films as The Bridge on the River Kwai Lawrence of Arabia and Doctor Zhivago Yet despite the large canvas of these masterpieces Lean never lost sight of the human story within them In his study of Lean's career Howard Maxford takes behind the scenes look at each of the director's films chronicling their making and their subsequent reception by both audiences and critics Lean's early work as a film editor which led to his commission by Noel Coward to co direct the landmark war drama In Which We Serve is examined along with Lean's self imposed 14 year exile after a savage reception from critics to his penultimate film His exile ended triumphantly with the release of A Passage to India Lean the man away from the camera is also revealed including his six marriages and his strict Quaker upbringing An informative critical guide this David Lean companion offers a detailed examination of the work of one of cinema's true greats The Art of Adapting Victorian Literature, 1848-1920 Dr Karen Laird, 2015-08-28 In The Art of Adapting Victorian Literature 1848 1920 Karen E Laird alternates between readings of nineteenth century stage and twentieth century silent film adaptations to demonstrate the working practices of the first adapters of Victorian fiction Focusing on Charlotte Brontë's Jane Eyre Charles Dickens's David Copperfield and Wilkie Collins's The Woman in White Laird charts a new cultural history of literary adaptation as it developed throughout the long nineteenth century David Lean and His Films Alain Silver, James Ursini, 1974 Michael Powell David Lazar, 2003 This collection of interviews reveals the mind and the tactics of a master filmmaker who is woefully

under known even as his films are widely celebrated throughout the world Theatres of Memory Raphael Samuel,2012-09-11 When Theatres of Memory was first published in 1994 it transformed the debate about what is to be considered history and questioned the role of heritage that lies at the heart of every Western nation's obsession with the past Today in the age of Downton Abbey and Mad Men we are once again conjuring historical fictions to make sense of our everyday lives In this remarkable book Samuel looks at the many different ways we use the unofficial knowledge of the past Considering such varied areas as the fashion for retrofitting the rise of family history the joys of collecting old photographs the allure of reenactment societies and televised adaptations of Dickens Samuel transforms our understanding of the uses of history He shows us that history is a living practice something constantly being reassessed in the world around us
