The Art Of Interrogation ER Hamilton,2013-07-04 This is Volume VIII of twenty one in the Individual Differences series with the library of Psychology First published in 1929 this study provides information on the principles of mental tests and examinations within the area of interrogation in order to understand more fully the differences in the minds of individuals

The Art of Interrogation Eric Ronald Hamilton,1929 The Art of Interrogation E. R. Hamilton,2001

Hermann Goring and the Nazi Art Collection Kenneth D. Alford,2014-01-10 During World War II the Nazis plundered from occupied countries millions of items of incalculable value estimated in the hundreds of millions of dollars Spearheaded by Hermann Goring the looting program quickly created the largest private art collection in the world exceeding the collections amassed by the Metropolitan in New York the British Museum in London the Louvre in Paris and the Tretiakov Gallery in Moscow By the end of the war the Nazis had stolen roughly one fifth of the entire art treasures of the world This book explores the formation of the Nazi art collection and the methods used by Goring and his party to strip occupied Europe of a large part of its artistic heritage

Interrogations, Confessions, and Entrapment G. Daniel Lassiter,2013-11-11 Coerced confessions have long been a staple of TV crime dramas and have also been the subject of recent news stories The complexity of such situations however is rarely explored even in the scientific literature Now in softcover Interrogations Confessions and Entrapment remains one of the best syntheses of the scientific legal and ethical findings in this area uncovering subtle yet powerful forces that often compromise the integrity of the criminal justice system Editor G Daniel Lassiter identifies the exposure of psychological coercion as an emerging frontier in legal psychology citing its roots in the third degree approach of former times and noting that its techniques carry little scientific validity A team of psychologists criminologists and legal scholars asks and goes a long way toward answering important questions such as What forms of psychological coercion are involved in interrogation Are some people more susceptible to falsely confessing than others What are the effects of psychological manipulation on innocent suspects Are coercive tactics ever justified with minors Can jurors recognize psychological coercion and unreliable confessions Can entrapment techniques encourage people to commit crimes What steps can law enforcement take to minimize coercion Throughout this progressive volume readers will find important research based ideas for educating the courts changing policy and implementing reform from improving police interrogation skills to better methods of evaluating confession evidence For the expert witness legal consultant or student of forensic psychology this is material whose relevance will only increase with time Interrogation: World War II, Vietnam, and Iraq James A. Stone, David P. Shoemaker, Nicholas R. Dotti, 2012-08-12 The volume based on research at the National Defense Intelligence College intends to inform a broad audience of intelligence professionals policymakers and the general public about intelligence interrogation techniques and challenges from WWII Vietnam and Iraq The work reviews interrogation history from a military perspective By adding context going back to World War II the Vietnam conflict and the war in Iraq this volume contributes to the public dialogue on how U S military and civilian agencies can best obtain information from prisoners of war and other categories of legal and illegal combatants without compromising the principles upon which the nation was founded Originally published by the U S Government s National Defense Intelligence College in color James A Stone is a Special Agent with the USAF Office of Special Investigations David P Shoemaker is a Special Agent with AFOSI Nicholas R Dotti is a U S Army major with Special Operations Command First Lessons in Composition, in which the Principles of the Art are Developed ... George Payn Quackenbos, 1881 First Lessons in Composition in which the Principles of the Art are Developed in Connection with the Principles of Grammar ... George Payn Quackenbos, 1861

First Lessons in Composition in which the Principles of the Art are Developed in Connection with the Principles of Grammar George Payn Quackenbos, 1876 A Dictionary of the Art of Printing William Savage, 1841 A Dictionary of the Art of Printing John Ramsey McCulloch, 2025-08-13 Reprint of the original first published in 1841 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Art of Investigative Interviewing Charles L. Yeschke, 2003 This text details the techniques that can be used by interviewers in any setting to identify indicators of deception and respond to them appropriately The author bases his approach on the application of the theory of human need to the process of investigative interviewing and argues that replacing coercion and confrontation with persuasion and communication will increase the productivity of the process Interrogators are shown how to recognize and respond to the human needs of the interviewee thus increasing the chance that the interviewee will talk and cooperate Other topics covered include recognition of deception responses to deception the ethics of interrogation preparation for the interview and several case studies Merleau-Ponty at the Limits of Art, Religion, and Perception Kascha Semonovitch, Neal DeRoo, 2011-10-27 This book poses the question of what lies at the limit of philosophy Through close studies of French phenomenologist Maurice Merleau Ponty s life and work the authors examine one of the twentieth century s most interdisciplinary philosophers whose thought intersected with and contributed to the practices of art psychology literature faith and philosophy As these essays show Merleau Ponty s oeuvre disrupts traditional disciplinary boundaries and prompts his readers to ask what exactly constitutes philosophy and its others Featuring essays by an international team of leading phenomenologists art theorists theologians historians of philosophy and philosophers of mind this volume breaks new ground in Merleau Ponty scholarship including the first sustained reflections on the relationship between Merleau Ponty and religion and magnifies a voice that is talked over in too many conversations across the academic disciplines Anyone interested in phenomenology art theory and history cognitive science the philosophy of mind and the philosophy of religion will find themselves challenged and engaged by the articles included in this important effort at inter disciplinary philosophy Arthur Danto's Philosophy of Art: Essays Noël Carroll,2021-07-19 For over thirty years Arthur Danto was the most important art critic and philosopher of art and aesthetics in the English speaking world Arthur Danto s Philosophy of Art Essays provides a comprehensive and systematic view of his philosophy and criticism by Noël Carroll Distinguished Professor of the Philosophy of Art CUNY and himself a former journalist specializing in arts criticism Danto s writings attracted and still attracts diverse audiences including aestheticians artists art critics historians and art lovers In this book they will find his major themes not only analyzed in depth but also discussions of his political significance views on history cinema and more The Participation of Juvenile Defendants in the Youth Court Stephanie S. Rap,2025-10-01 This study revolves around the issue of the participation of juvenile defendants in the youth court Juvenile defendants right to be heard as stipulated in international children s rights law and standards and the fact that juveniles have a limited understanding of the juvenile justice process are taken as starting points to formulate directives in order for young persons to be able to participate effectively in the youth court In total the cases of 3 019 juvenile defendants have been observed in youth courts and other competent administrative bodies in juvenile justice in 11 European countries The Scottish children s hearing and the juvenile justice practice in Switzerland come forward as examples of best practice regarding the participation of juveniles A more intimate and informal setting contributes to making the hearing more accessible for the young person and his parents Furthermore this study shows that the fulfilment of the requirements for the effective participation of juvenile defendants is not possible in the adversarial youth courts in Europe The Art of Investigative Interviewing Inge Sebyan Black,2013-12-27 The Art of Investigative Interviewing Third Edition can be used by anyone who is involved in investigative interviewing It is a perfect combination of real practical and effective techniques procedures and actual cases Learn key elements of investigative interviewing such as human psychology proper interview preparation tactical concepts controlling the interview environment and evaluating the evidence obtained from the interview Inge Sebyan Black updated the well respected work of Charles L Yeschke to provide everything an interviewer needs to know in order to conduct successful interviews professionally with integrity and within the law This book covers the myriad factors of an interview including issues of evidence rapport deception authority and setting clearly and effectively It also includes a chapter on personnel issues and internal theft controls Provides guidance on conducting investigative interviews professionally and ethically Includes instructions for obtaining voluntary confessions from suspects victims and witnesses Builds a foundation of effective interviewing skills with guidance on every step of the process from preparation to evaluating evidence obtained in an interview The Art and Science of Psychological Operations American Institutes for Research,1976 Art as Politics in the Third Reich Jonathan Petropoulos,1999-02-01 The political elite of Nazi Germany perceived itself as a cultural elite as well In Art as Politics in the Third Reich Jonathan Petropoulos explores the elite s cultural aspirations by examining both the formulation of a national aesthetic policy
