Art Of Vivan Sundaram:

The Art of Vivan Sundaram Vivan Sundaram, Kamala Kapoor, 2002 Catalog of works of Vivan Sundaram Indian artist includes a brief biographical sketch Vivan Sundaram Deepak Ananth, 2018 This generously illustrated survey of the acclaimed Indian artist Vivan Sundaram features a comprehensive and wide ranging examination of his multi media practice extending over a period of five decades Vivan Sundaram s eclecticism is a distinctive feature of his work and is the focus of this monograph A pioneer of installation art in India Sundaram started off as a painter in the late 1960s but his desire to break free of the limits imposed by the pictorial frame only came to fruition in the early 1990s when Sundaram began making works that no longer hinged on the specificity of a medium This change in artistic direction coincided with his interest in exploring the materiality of a range of substances whether artisanal or industrial Sundaram s choice of materials has had a thematic resonance in the different bodies of work that he has made over the last twenty five years His practice keenly registers the civic dimension and political import of art History memory and archive are the overarching concerns of his work These themes define and structure this important publication and offer an open ended framework for exploring the oeuvre of a highly original artist Publisher A Fragile Inheritance Saloni Mathur, 2019-10-22 Saloni Mathur investigates the radical work of two seminal figures New Delhi based critic and curator Geeta Kapur and her husband contemporary multimedia artist Vivan Sundaram to show how their approach to artistic practice and theory may inform subsequent generations and serve as a model for artistic politics in our time Vivan Sundaram is Not a Photographer Ruth Rosengarten, 2019 In this book Ruth Rosengarten considers the expanded field of the photographic in the work of Indian artist Vivan Sundaram beginning with the notion that Sundaram is not a photographer in any traditional sense of the term Discussing the ontological shift that photography has undergone in the age of digital production Rosengarten considers photography as more a practice than a medium Exploring the uses of the historical artistic methods of assemblage bricolage and the assisted readymade she throws light on Sundaram s individual uses and subversions of documentary photography In each chapter a single or two bodies of work are analysed positioning Sundaram in relation to various propositions in which the relationship between photography and politics is probed Often site specific and always entailing the collaboration of numerous other practitioners Sundaram s work lays bare the limitations of individual studio practice and single authorship The works Rosengarten argues invite us to consider and immerse ourselves materially in the ethical claims of photography raising question about archivalism in art practice and throwing light on Sundaram s locational commitment as a citizen artist Cover flap Disjunctures Deepak Ananth, Anna Schneider (Art historian), 2018 Politics and poetics ethics and aesthetics the continual crossing of these dimensions defines the forcefield in which the multimedia oeuvre of Vivan Sundaram born 1943 in Simla India has taken shape over the last 50 years His artistic beginnings coincide with an emblematic date in the second half of the twentieth century 1968 synonymous with the international protest movements of students workers and civil rights activists This was the year in which Sundaram made an important set of paintings soon after graduating from the Slade School of Art in London It was a moment that crystallized his conviction that an engagement with the world in all its actuality was the fundamental reason for being an artist All his endeavors since then in whichever medium he has explored have focused on finding the formal means appropriate to this commitment The collage montage principle that he adopted early on made for a disjunctive pictorial space which put the frame under considerable pressure Both Pop Art and Minimalism paved the way towards a practice understood as situated in an expanded field and Sundaram is the artist in India whose work has most keenly registered the political import of this deterritorialization Gallery website Vivan Sundaram Vivan

Sundaram,1988 A History of Indian Painting Krishna Chaitanya,1976 Urbanization and Contemporary Chinese

Art Meiqin Wang,2015-08-11 This book explores the relationship between the ongoing urbanization in China and the production of contemporary Chinese art since the beginning of the twenty first century Wang provides a detailed analysis of artworks and methodologies of art making from eight contemporary artists who employ a wide range of mediums including painting sculpture photography installation video and performance She also sheds light on the relationship between these artists and their sociocultural origins investigating their provocative responses to various processes and problems brought about by Chinese urbanization With this urbanization comes a fundamental shift of the philosophical and aesthetic foundations in the practice of Chinese art from a strong affiliation with nature and countryside to one that is complexly associated with the city and the urban world Contemporary Art and the Cosmopolitan Imagination Marsha

Meskimmon,2010-09-13 Contemporary Art and the Cosmopolitan Imagination offers a challenging new direction in the current literature on cosmopolitanism globalisation and art Feminisms/Museums/Surveys Hilary Robinson,Lara

Development of Modern Art Criticism in India after Independence Dr. Sangeeta, 2017-10-06 Any artistic creation be it a painting or sculpture initiates a reaction within us invoking within us a desire to analyse or evaluate it The criticism of art definitely has its presence But the question is in what form and of what relevance is it Art criticism is exclusively presented in the written form it does not consist of descriptions of pictures interpretations or re creations but of something new and autonomous related to the piece of art in some way Criticism always gives us novel ideas for modern art which in turn enriches the Indian heritage Art has been part of our life since ancient times Traditionally Indian art writing was mainly composed of commentaries on courtly art conventions and on the poetic texts that inspired paintings and sculptures Since the 20th century there has been a breakdown of established conceptions of meaning in the all streams of arts and several rapid changes in artistic style This book will help readers understand the journey of modern art criticism since Indian independence It formulates as precisely as possible the basic principles and norms that will enrich artistically sensitive laymen and critics alike

Museum Transformations Annie E. Coombes, Ruth B. Phillips, 2020-04-06 MUSEUM TRANSFORMATIONS DECOLONIZATION AND DEMOCRATIZATION Edited By ANNIE E COOMBES AND RUTH B PHILLIPS Museum Transformations Decolonization and Democratization addresses contemporary approaches to decolonization greater democratization and revisionist narratives in museum exhibition and program development around the world The text explores how museums of art history and ethnography responded to deconstructive critiques from activists and poststructuralist and postcolonial theorists and provided models for change to other types of museums and heritage sites The volume s first set of essays discuss the role of the museum in the narration of difficult histories and how altering the social attitudes and political structures that enable oppression requires the recognition of past histories of political and racial oppression and colonization in museums Subsequent essays consider the museum s new roles in social action and discuss experimental projects that work to change power dynamics within institutions and leverage digital technology and new media

Worldly Affiliations Sonal Khullar, 2015-05-02 The purpose of art the Paris trained artist Amrita Sher Gil wrote in 1936 is to create the forms of the future by drawing its inspiration from the present Through art new worlds can be imagined into existence as artists cultivate forms of belonging and networks of association that oppose colonialist and nationalist norms Drawing on Edward Said s notion of affiliation as a critical and cultural imperative against empire and nation state Worldly Affiliations traces the emergence of a national art world in twentieth century India and emphasizes its cosmopolitan ambitions and orientations Sonal Khullar focuses on four major Indian artists Sher Gil Maqbool Fida Husain K G Subramanyan and Bhupen Khakhar situating their careers within national and global histories of modernism and modernity Through a close analysis of original artwork archival materials artists writing and period criticism Khullar provides a vivid historical account of the state and stakes of artistic practice in India from the late colonial through postcolonial periods She discusses the shifting terms of Indian artists engagement with the West an urgent yet fraught project in the wake of British colonialism and to a lesser extent with African and Latin American cultural movements such as N gritude and Mexican muralism Written in a lucid and engaging style this book links artistic developments in India to newly emerging histories of modern art in Asia Africa and Latin America Drawing on original research in the twenty first century art world Khullar shows the persistence of modernism in contemporary art from India and compares its function to Walter Benjamin s ruin In the work of contemporary artists from India modernism is the ground from which to imagine futures This richly illustrated study juxtaposes little known rarely seen or previously unpublished works of modern and contemporary art with historical works popular or mass reproduced images and documentary photographs Its innovative art program renders newly visible the aesthetic and political achievements of Indian modernism
