Art A New History:

Art: A New History Paul Johnson, 2003-09-30 In Art A New History Paul Johnson turns his great gifts as a world historian to a subject that has enthralled him all his life the history of art This narrative account from the earliest cave paintings up to the present day has new things to say about almost every period of art Taking account of changing scholarship and shifting opinions he draws our attention to a number of neglected artists and styles especially in Scandinavia Germany Russia and the Americas Paul Johnson puts the creative originality of the individual at the heart of his story He pays particular attention to key periods the emergence of the artistic personality in the Renaissance the new realism of the early seventeenth century the discovery of landscape painting as a separate art form and the rise of ideological art He notes the division of fashion art and fine art at the beginning of the twentieth century and how it has now widened Though challenging and controversial Paul Johnson is not primarily a revisionist He is a passionate lover of beauty who finds creativity in many places With 300 colour illustrations this book is vivid evocative and immensely readable whether the author is describing the beauty of Egyptian low relief carving or the medieval cathedrals of Europe the watercolours of Thomas Girtin or the utility of Roman bridges the best bridges in history the genius of Andrew Wyeth or the tranquility of the Great Mosque at Damascus the paintings of Ilya Repin or a carpet page from the Lindisfarne Gospels The warmth and enthusiasm of Paul Johnson's descriptions will send readers hurrying off to see these wonders for themselves

A New History of Western Art Koenraad Jonckheere, 2022-10-15 A radical re examination of 2 500 years of European art deconstructing and demystifying its long history from ancient to present How has art evolved from the pursuit of the ideal human form to a black square on a white canvas Why is a banana duct taped to a wall worth more on the art market than a beautiful seventeenth century landscape By taking art for what it actually is a piece of stone or wood a sheet of paper with some lines drawn on it a painted canvas this lively and accessible account shows how seemingly meaningless objects can be transformed into celebrated works of art Breaking with conventional notions of artistic genius Koenraad Jonckheere explores how stories and emotions give meaning to objects and why changing historical circumstances result in such shifting opinions over time Tracing its story from ancient times to present A New History of Western Art reframes the evolution of European art and radically reshapes our understanding of art history Published in association with Hannibal Books
