Creation Sheri Vegas, 2020-03-03 Forward By Isabelle De Vries Sheri Vegas has played a predominant role in making the Australian beauty industry what it is today As an Award winning make up artist entrepreneur and educator with a strong background in art as an abstract resin artist Sheri knows the importance colour theory plays in our lives Creativity Takes Courage Henri Matisse This book came to me at a time when I need art the most I had lost the drive and the passion for something that I had once loved The industry had taken its toll on me I felt lost at sea I was just floating away with no real drive or passion anymore My ideas had dried up my brain had burnt out and the love was gone I soon discovered that it was not the passion to create that had faded it was the courage to create that had faded I put down my brushes stepped away from my creativity and decided to work on the business side of beauty However I was not as fulfilled as I hoped I still felt that tingling you feel when you see someone else creating and your just itching to help So it was time to pick up my brushes Just because my brain had decided to be logical did not mean my heart had to follow I returned back to painting my original passion which lead me to be a makeup artist in the first place I tried to use painting to ease my tingling fingers and roaming mind but the more I painted and played with new textiles and medium the more my courage to create came back Being able to express my creativity in new ways lit the spark in me again and my creativity was set on fire I wanted to paint faces again and push myself as a makeup artist Using items that were not traditional cosmetics products in each makeup design and experimenting with new mediums texture and materials and that is how the book was born In each look there are elements used that you would not normally expect to see in beauty or creative makeup but those elements are what makes each makeup design interesting and special Not only do you get to see the images that sprang from my imagination but you will also be invited to experience the journey of how these makeup designs were created      Make-up Art Ron
