American Promise Equal Justice And Economic Opportunity:

The American Promise Arthur I. Blaustein, 1982-01-01 This forcefully argued and carefully documented report by the National Advisory Council on Economic Opportunity criticizes the Reagan Economic Recovery Program on the basis that it separates economic theory from social policy pursuing the former at the expense of the latter which hurts the poor and could lead to social chaos This controversial volume also argues that the current policy proposals for the 1980s ignore national standards of responsibility and accountability National Advisory Council on Economic Opportunity : Final Report United States. National Advisory Council on Economic Opportunity (U.S.), 1981 Pay Equity: Equal Pay for Work of Comparable Value United States. Congress. House. Committee on Post Office and Civil Service. Subcommittee on Human Resources, 1983 Oversight Hearing on the Termination of the Community Services Administration United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor. Subcommittee on Human Resources, 1982 Child Support Enforcement Legislation United States. Congress. House. Committee on Ways and Means. Subcommittee on Public Assistance and Unemployment Compensation, 1984 Mother Jones Magazine , 1998-05 Mother Jones is an award winning national magazine widely respected for its groundbreaking investigative reporting and coverage of sustainability and environmental issues Aging Harry R. Moody, Jennifer R. Sasser, 2014-03-10 Presenting current research in an innovative format Harry Moody and Jennifer Sasser s Aging Concepts and Controversies encourages students to become involved and take an informed stand on the major aging issues that we face as a society Using their extensive expertise the authors provide a thorough explanation of the issues in the Concepts sections and current research in the Controversy sections demonstrating the close links between concepts and controversies in these broad areas of aging health care socioeconomic trends and the life course Economic Opportunity Amendments of 1971 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor, 1971 Harambee City Nishani Frazier, 2017-02-15 BLACK POWER It was a phrase that consumed the American imagination in the 1960s and 70s and inspired a new agenda for black freedom Dynamic and transformational the black power movement embodied more than media stereotypes of gun toting dashiki wearing black radicals the movement opened new paths to equality through political and economic empowerment In Harambee City Nishani Frazier chronicles the rise and fall of black power within the Congress of Racial Equality CORE by exploring the powerful influence of the Cleveland CORE chapter Frazier explores the ways that black Clevelanders began to espouse black power ideals including black institution building self help and self defense These ideals challenged CORE s philosophy of interracial brotherhood and nonviolent direct action spawning ideological ambiguities in the Cleveland chapter Later as Cleveland CORE members rose to national prominence in the organization they advocated an open embrace of black power and encouraged national CORE to develop a notion of black community uplift that emphasized economic populism over political engagement Not surprisingly these new empowerment strategies found acceptance in Cleveland By providing an understanding of the tensions between black power and the mainstream civil rights movement as they manifested themselves as both local and national forces

Harambee City sheds new light on how CORE became one of the most dynamic civil rights organizations in the black power era

Housing and Planning References, 1983 Pay Equity United States. Congress. House. Committee on Post Office and Civil Service. Matthew Snipp, 1989-11-21 Native Americans are too few in number to swing presidential elections affect national statistics or attract consistent media attention But their history illuminates our collective past and their current disadvantaged status reflects our problematic present In American Indians The First of This Land C Matthew Snipp provides an unrivaled chronicle of the position of American Indians and Alaskan Natives within the larger American society Taking advantage of recent Census Bureau efforts to collect high quality data for these groups Snipp details the composition and characteristics of native Indian and Alaskan populations His analyses of housing family structure language use and education socioeconomic status migration and mortality are based largely on unpublished material not available in any other single source He catalogs the remarkable diversity of a population Eskimos Aleuts and numerous Indian tribes once thought doomed to extinction but now making a dramatic comeback exceeding 1 million for the first time in 300 years Also striking is the pervasive influence of the federal bureaucracy on the social profile of American Indians a profile similar at times to that of Third World populations in terms of literacy income and living conditions Comparisons with black and white Americans throughout this study place its findings in perspective and confirm its stature as a benchmark volume American Indians offers an unsurpassed overview of a minority group that is deeply embedded in American folklore the first of this land historically but now among the last in its socioeconomic hierarchy A Volume in the Russell Sage Foundation Census Series Hard Choices Kathleen Gerson, 1986-03-17 How do women choose between work and family commitments And what are the causes limits and consequences of the subtle revolution in women s choices over the 1960s and 1970s To answer these questions Kathleen Gerson analyzes the experiences of a carefully selected group of middle class and working class women who were young adults in the 1970s Their informative life histories reveal the emerging social forces in American society that have led today s women to face several difficult choices

Economic Development & Law Center Report, 1982 The American Promise United States. National Advisory Council on Economic Opportunity, 1981 Public Health in a Retrenchment Era Helen J. Muller, Curtis Ventriss, 1985-06-30 Public Health in a Retrenchment Era illustrates the political and economic reality of making cutbacks in traditional government sponsored programs This book critically examines the issues concerning cutbacks by focusing on Los Angeles County which has one of the largest public health service systems in the nation and explains how cutbacks were legitimized and implemented Muller and Ventriss propose that the retrenchment process offers an opportunity for policymakers and citizens alike to critically examine new choices which may not have existed in periods of fiscal expansion They criticize the present focus on managerialism and propose an alternative approach Called the co possibility model it enhances a more humane and substantive policy approach in making cutbacks This model links the citizen policymaker and public organization in a new relationship fostering an environment for policy experimentation and innovation in this retrenchment era

Pornography, Sex Work, and Hate Speech Karen Maschke, 2024-11-01 Multidisciplinary focus Surveying many disciplines this anthology brings together an outstanding selection of scholarly articles that examine the profound impact of law on the lives of women in the United States The themes addressed include the historical political and social contexts of legal issues that have affected women s struggles to obtain equal treatment under the law The articles are drawn from journals in law political science history women s studies philosophy and education and represent some of the most interesting writing on the subject The law in theory and practice Many of the articles bring race social and economic factors into their analyses observing for example that black women poor women and single mothers are treated by the wielders of the power of the law differently than middle class white women Other topics covered include the evolution of women s legal status reproduction rights sexuality and family issues equal employment and educational opportunities domestic violence pornography and sexual exploitation hate speech and feminist legal thought A valuable research and classroom aid this series provides in depth coverage of specific legal issues and takes into account the major legal changes and policies that have had an impact on the lives of American women Mother Jones Magazine, 1993-05 Launching the War on Poverty Michael L. Gillette, 2010-07-09 Head Start Job Corps Foster Grandparents College Work Study VISTA Community Action and the Legal Services Corporation are familiar programs but their tumultuous beginning has been largely forgotten Conceived amid the daring idealism of the 1960s these programs originated as weapons in Lyndon Johnson s War on Poverty an offensive spearheaded by a controversial new government agency Within months the Office of Economic Opportunity created an array of unconventional initiatives that empowered the poor challenged the established order and ultimately transformed the nation s attitudes toward poverty In Launching the War on Poverty historian Michael L Gillette weaves together oral history interviews with the architects of the Great Society s boldest experiment Forty nine former poverty warriors including Sargent Shriver Adam Yarmolinsky and Lawrence F O'Brien recount this inside story of unprecedented governmental innovation The interviews capture the excitement and heady optimism of Americans in the 1960s along with their conflicts and disillusionment This new edition of Launching the War on Poverty adds the voice of Lyndon Johnson to the story with excerpts from his recently released White House telephone conversations In these colorful and brutally candid conversations LBJ exercises his full arsenal of presidential powers political leverage and legendary persuasiveness to win one of his most difficult legislative battles The second edition also documents how the OEO s offspring survived their volatile origins to become broadly supported features of domestic policy
