American Propaganda Abroad From Benjamin Franklin To Ronald Reagan:

American Propaganda Abroad Fitzhugh Green, 1988-09-01 Britain, America and Anti-Communist Propaganda 1945-53 Andrew Defty, 2013-12-02 In the Cold War battle for hearts and minds Britain was the first country to formulate a coordinated global response to communist propaganda In January 1948 the British government launched a new propaganda policy designed to oppose the inroads of communism by taking the offensive against it A small section in the Foreign Office the innocuously titled Information Research Department IRD was established to collate information on communist policy tactics and propaganda and coordinate the discreet dissemination of counter propaganda to opinion formers at home and abroad

Voice of America Alan L. Heil, Jr., 2003-06-25 The Voice of America is the nation s largest publicly funded broadcasting network reaching more than 90 million people worldwide in over forty languages Since it first went on the air as a regional wartime enterprise in February 1942 VOA has undergone The Battle for Hearts and Minds in the High North Mikael Nilsson, 2016-09-07 Mikael Nilsson offers a detailed and groundbreaking analysis of how the United States Information Agency USIA conducted its wide ranging propaganda campaign in Sweden during the Cold War 1952 1969 The USIA placed propaganda in the Swedish press radio and television as well as schools and universities and established connections to labour leaders government officials and journalists The book also details how the U S military financed research at Swedish universities Nilsson shows how Swedish journalists scientists and government officials assisted the USIA in its propaganda efforts i e co produced U S hegemony in Sweden The book highlights both the width and the limits of USIA s propaganda and also relates this theme to Swedish security policy and the secret military cooperation between Sweden and the United States

Across the Blocs Patrick Major, Rana Mitter, 2004-08-02 This book asks the reader to reassess the Cold War not just as superpower conflict and high diplomacy but as social and cultural history It makes cross cultural comparisons of the socio cultural aspects of the Cold War across the East West block divide dealing with issues including broadcasting public opinion and the production and consumption of popular culture Broadcasting Freedom Arch Puddington, 2021-05-11 Among America s most unusual and successful weapons during the Cold War were Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty RFE RL had its origins in a post war America brimming with confidence and secure in its power Unlike the Voice of America which conveyed a distinctly American perspective on global events RFE RL served as surrogate home radio services and a vital alternative to the controlled party dominated domestic press in Eastern Europe Over twenty stations featured programming tailored to individual countries They reached millions of listeners ranging from industrial workers to dissident leaders such as Lech Walesa and Vaclav Havel Broadcasting Freedom draws on rare archival material and offers a penetrating insider history of the radios that helped change the face of Europe Arch Puddington reveals new information about the connections between RFE RL and the CIA which provided covert funding for the stations during the critical start up years in the early 1950s He relates in detail the efforts of Soviet and Eastern Bloc officials to thwart the stations their tactics ranged from jamming attempts assassinations of radio journalists the infiltration of spies onto the radios staffs and the bombing of the radios headquarters Puddington addresses the controversies that engulfed the stations throughout the Cold War most notably RFE broadcasts during the Hungarian Revolution that were described as inflammatory and irresponsible He shows how RFE prevented the Communist authorities from establishing a monopoly on the dissemination of information in Poland and describes the crucial roles played by the stations as the Berlin Wall came down and the Soviet Union broke apart Broadcasting Freedom is also a portrait of the Cold War in America Puddington offers insights into the strategic thinking of the RFE RL leadership and those in the highest circles of American government including CIA directors secretaries of state and even presidents War of the Black Heavens Michael Nelson,1997-12-01 International diplomacy and a changing global economy did not bring about the fall of the Iron Curtain Radio did and it was mightier than the sword Based on first hand interviews and documents from the Central Committee of the Soviet Communist Party Michael Nelson shows that Western radio principally the British Broadcasting Corporation Radio Free Europe Radio Liberty and the Voice of America were unrivaled forces in the fight against communism and the fall of the Iron Curtain The Communists did everything in their power to prevent the infiltration of Western thought into their world resorting to jamming radio signals assassinating staff and bombing stations The Russians for example decided to stop the mass production of short wave radios so that their citizens could not hear Western broadcasts War of the Black Heavens reveals that due to administrative incompetence short wave radio production continued making worthless many of the billions of dollars spent on jamming These radio programs introduced a forbidden exciting culture to millions of eager listeners Pop music talk shows news and information about consumer goods all relayed a message of the good life subtly undermining the values of the communist regimes Western radio actively connected listeners with the cultures of Europe and North America War of the Black Heavens describes an unheralded story of success and adds a new interpretation that helps us understand some of the most momentous political events of this century Taken by Storm W.
