American Scream And Palindrome Apocalypse:

American Scream Dubravka Oraić Tolić, 2005 What is America For renowned Croatian poet Dubravka Oraić Tolić it is what is born from our dreams without our knowing As Columbus dream of reaching India was interrupted by the discovery of a new land we too discover unexpected lands in pursuit of our dreams These new lands are the reality of our hopeful voyages American Scream explores the tension between a nation's dream of freedom and the outworking of that dream Palindrome Apocalypse explores the history of the twentieth century beginning with the October Revolution of 1917 and ending with the bombing of Zagreb in 1991 a shadow of apocalypse Here the exceptional poem is presented side by side with the Croatian so the reader can appreciate the amazing palindromic verse

Zagreb, Exit South Edo Popović, 2005 Take a ride through the fog that is the new Zagreb and meet the people who struggle to make sense of themselves and their city Be guided by the sound of a musical lighter as Baba wanders the streets in search of his beloved domestic beer and an excuse not to go home Vera states at her computer screen finding that email is cheaper than therapy that the past should stay in the past and that radical ex boyfriends get old too Baba Vera and their friends and enemies sometimes one and the same discover that sex drugs alcohol and conversation may not be the keys to salvation but they can be essential survival gear in a country redefining itself

BOOK JACKET Contemporary Russian Poetry Евгений Бунимович, J. Kates, 2008 Prominent Moscow poet Evgeny Bunimovich selected representative work from forty four living Russian poets born after 1945 to be translated and published in this bilingual edition The collection ranges from the mordant post Soviet irony of Igor Irteniev to the fresh voices of poets like Marianna Geide and Anna Russ young women just beginning to make themselves heard The book includes the work of Booker Prize winner Sergey Gandlevsky and several winners of the Andrey Bely Prize and Brodsky Fellowships Most of these poems and many of the poets have previously been unpublished in the West

Red Star Tales Yvonne Howell, 2015-10-01 For over a century most of the science fiction produced by the world's largest country has been beyond the reach of Western readers This new collection aims to change that bringing a large body of influential works into the English orbit A scientist keeps a severed head alive and the head lives to tell the tale An explorer experiences life on the moon in a story written six decades before the first moon landing Electrical appliances respond to human anxieties and threaten to crash the electrical grid Archaeologists discover strange powers emanating from a Central Asian excavation site A teleporting experiment goes awry leaving a subject to cope with a bizarre sensory swap A boy discovers the explosive truth of his father's antiseptic work stamping out dissent on distant worlds The last 100 years in Russia have seen an astonishing diversity and depth of literary works in the science fiction genre by authors with a dizzying array of styles and subject matter This volume brings together 18 such works translated into English for the first time spanning from path breaking pre revolutionary works of the 1890s through the difficult Stalinist era to post Soviet stories published in the 1980s and 1990s

World Literature, World Culture Karen-Margrethe Simonsen, Jakob Stougaard-Nielsen, 2008-12-31 In a global age where people goods and cultural products transcend the boundaries of geography and temporality as never before it is only natural that literary and cultural studies turn their attention to Goethe's nineteenth century notion of a Weltliteratur. Offering their own Twenty First Century perspectives across generations nationalities and disciplines the contributors to this anthology explore the idea of world literature for what it may add of new connections and itineraries to the study of literature and culture today. Covering a vast historical material from witness accounts of the fall of Constantinople to Hari Kunzru's contemporary representations of multicultural London these essays by a diverse group of scholars examine the pioneers of world literature Juan Andres Morell Goethe and Hugo Meltzl and the roles played by translation migration and literature institutions in the circulation and reception of both national and cosmopolitan literatures. They illustrate how literary analysis can be enriched by attention to the border crossing itineraries followed by migrants writers publishers translators and texts thereby yielding new discoveries about writers and artists such as Catullus Manuel Vicent Jean Luc Godard Dubravka been a self declared independent state since July 25 1991. To its own people however it is a much older country that is finally getting another chance to forge a nation. The Croats trace their roots back many centuries and the depth of this resurgent nationalism helps explain why Yugoslavia split as it did and where it did. As Croatia and its people try to make a success of their new state they can take hope in the notable progress that has already been made in regards to its economic restructuring democratization and a rapprochement with their neighbors and Europe more broadly.
