American Splendor Our Movie Year Harvey Pekar, 2004-12-01 Pekar reveals his impressions of the life changing year after the release of the movie American Splendor which is based on his life and work Comics and Pop Culture Barry Keith Grant, Scott Henderson, 2019-12-13 It is hard to discuss the current film industry without acknowledging the impact of comic book adaptations especially considering the blockbuster success of recent superhero movies Yet transmedial adaptations are part of an evolution that can be traced to the turn of the last century when comic strips such as Little Nemo in Slumberland and Felix the Cat were animated for the silver screen Representing diverse academic fields including technoculture film studies theater feminist studies popular culture and queer studies Comics and Pop Culture presents more than a dozen perspectives on this rich history and the effects of such adaptations Examining current debates and the questions raised by comics adaptations including those around authorship style and textual fidelity the contributors consider the topic from an array of approaches that take into account representations of sexuality gender and race as well as concepts of world building and cultural appropriation in comics from Modesty Blaise to Black Panther The result is a fascinating re

Body Double Lucy Fischer, 2013-01-15 Body Double explores the myriad ways that film artists have represented the creative process In this highly innovative work Lucy Fischer draws on a neglected element of auteur studies to show that filmmakers frequently raise questions about the paradoxes of authorship by portraying the onscreen writer Dealing with such varied topics as the icon of the typewriter the case of the writer director the authoress and the omnipresent infirm author she probes the ways in which films can tell a plausible story while contemplating the conditions and theories of their making By examining many forms of cinema from Hollywood and the international art cinema to the avant garde Fischer considers the gender age and mental or physical health of fictionalized writers the dramatized interaction between artists and their audiences and critics and the formal play of written words and nonverbal images By analyzing such movies as Adaptation Diary of a Country Priest Naked Lunch American Splendor and Irezumi Fischer tracks the parallels between film author and character looking not for the creative figure who stands outside the text but for the one who stands within it as corporeal presence and alter ego
