Jewish responses to Catholic religious practices that temporarily transformed streets into sacred spaces This activity amplified an urban Jewish presence and provided vital contexts for synagogue life as seen in the captivating photographs Moore analyzes Art and Judaism in the Greco-Roman World Steven Fine,2005-06-08 Publisher Description

Framing Jewish Culture Simon J. Bronner,2014-01-01 Modernity offers people choices about who they want to be and how they want to appear to others The way in which Jews choose to frame their identity establishes the dynamic of their social relations with other Jews and non Jews a dynamic complicated by how non Jews position the boundaries around what and who they define as Jewish This book uncovers these processes historically as well as in contemporary behavior and finds explanations for the various manifestations in feeling and action of being Jewish Boundaries and borders raise fundamental questions about the difference between Jews and non Jews At root the question is how Jewish is understood in social situations where people recognize or construct boundaries between their own identity and those of others The question is important because this is by definition the point at which the lines of demarcation between Jews and non Jews and between different groupings of Jews are negotiated Collectively the contributors to the book expand our understanding of the social dynamics of framing Jewish identity The book opens with an introduction that locates the issues raised by the contributors in terms of the scholarly traditions from which they have evolved Part I presents four essays dealing with the construction and maintenance of boundaries two by scholars showing how boundaries come to be etched on an ethnic landscape and two by activists who question and adjust distinctions among neighbors Part II focuses on expressive means of conveying identity and memory while in Part III the discussion turns to museum exhibitions and festive performances as locations for the negotiation of identity in the public sphere A lively discussion forum concludes the book with a consideration of the paradoxes of Jewish heritage revival in Poland and the perception of that revival by Jews and non Jews Architecture of the World's Major Religions Thomas Barrie,2020-08-25 In Architecture of the World's Major Religions An Essay on Themes Differences and Similarities Thomas Barrie presents and explains religious architecture in ways that challenge predominant presumptions regarding its aesthetic formal spatial and scenographic elements Two positions frame its narrative religious architecture is an amalgam of aesthetic social political cultural economic and doctrinal elements and these elements are materialized in often very different ways in the world's principal religions Central to the work's theoretical approaches is the communicative and discursive agency of religious architecture and the multisensory and ritual spaces it provides to create and deliver content Subsequently mythical and scriptural foundations and symbols of ecclesiastical and political power are of equal interest to formal organizations of thresholds paths courts and centers and celestial and geometric alignments Moreover it is equally concerned with the aesthetic visual and material cultures and the transcendent realms they were designed to evoke as it is with the kinesthetic the dynamic and multisensory experience of place and the tangible experiences of the body's interactions with architecture Synagogues in Lithuania N-Ž Aliza Cohen-Mushlin,Sergey Kravtsov,Vladimir
