Congressional Record United States. Congress,1949 International Teacher Development Program United States. Office of Education,1959 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1987 School Life ,1954 Beyond Japan Peter J. Katzenstein,Takashi Shiraishi,2018-07-05 Have Japan s relative economic decline and China s rapid ascent altered the dynamics of Asian regionalism Peter Katzenstein and Takashi Shiraishi the editors of Network Power one of the most comprehensive volumes on East Asian regionalism in the 1990s present here an impressive new collection that brings the reader up to date This book argues that East Asia s regional dynamics are no longer the result of a simple extension of any one national model While Japanese institutional structures and political practices remain critically important the new East Asia now under construction is more than and different from the sum of its various national parts At the outset of a new century the interplay of Japanese factors with Chinese American and other national influences is producing a distinctively new East Asian region The Harvard Teachers Record Charles Swain Thomas,Howard Eugene Wilson,1935 The Politics of Truth in Polarized America David C. Barker,Elizabeth Suhay,2021 This volume provides the first comprehensive empirical examination of the politics of truth its context causes and potential correctives Combining insights from the fields of political science political theory communication and psychology the experts in this volume draw compelling if sometimes competing conclusions regarding this rising democratic threat Cuba and the Politics of Passion Damián J. Fernández,2010-01-01 Cuban politics has long been remarkable for its passionate intensity and yet few scholars have explored the effect of emotions on political attitudes and action in Cuba or elsewhere This book thus offers an important new approach by bringing feelings back into the study of politics and showing how the politics of passion and affection have interacted to shape Cuban history throughout the twentieth century Damián Fernández characterizes the politics of passion as the pursuit of a moral absolute for the nation as a whole While such a pursuit rallied the Cuban people around charismatic leaders such as Fidel Castro Fernández finds that it also set the stage for disaffection and disconnection when the grand goal never fully materialized At the same time he reveals how the politics of affection taking care of family and friends outside the formal structures of government has paradoxically both undermined state regimes and helped them remain in power by creating an informal survival network that provides what the state cannot or will not The American Hebrew ,1938

The Crisis of American Foreign Policy Howard J. Wiarda,Esther M. Skelley,2006 In The Crisis of American Foreign Policy noted scholar Howard J Wiarda argues that the foreign policy of the United States reflects the divisions and dysfunctions we see in our domestic culture and society This text tackles such critical issues as ethnocentrism in foreign policy as well as U S efforts to extend democracy human rights and civil society in other countries Key areas covered include Europe Asia Africa Latin America and the Middle East Concise clearly written well organized challenging and provocative this is a text that students and professors alike will appreciate Community Development Bulletin United States. Agency for International Development. Community Development Division,1959 Community Development Review ,1958

Our Army ,1941 The Public Life of the Arts in America Joni Maya Cherbo,Margaret Jane Wyszomirski,2000

Despite its size quality and economic impact the arts community is not articulate about how they serve public interests and few citizens have an appreciation of the myriad of public policies that influence American arts and culture The contributors to this volume argue that U S policy can and should support the arts and that the arts in turn serve a broad rather than an elite public By encouraging policy makers to systematically start investigating the crucial role and importance of all of the arts in the United States The Arts and Public Purpose moves the field forward with fresh ideas new concepts and important new data Library Catalog of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.). Library,1960

Recently the topic of civil society has generated a wave of interest and a wealth of new information Until now no publication has attempted to organize and consolidate this knowledge The International Encyclopedia of Civil Society fills this gap establishing a common set of understandings and terminology and an analytical starting point for future research Global in scope and authoritative in content the Encyclopedia offers succinct summaries of core concepts and theories definitions of terms biographical entries on important figures and organizational profiles In addition it serves as a reliable and up to date guide to additional sources of information In sum the Encyclopedia provides an overview of the contours of civil society social capital philanthropy and nonprofits across cultures and historical periods For researchers in nonprofit and civil society studies political science economics management and social enterprise this is the most systematic appraisal of a rapidly growing field AF Press Clips ,1980-05 Social Capital in Development Planning Raffaella Y. Nanetti,Catalina Holguin,2016-01-28 The pursuit of sustainable development and smart growth is a main challenge today in countries around the world Social capital is an asset of their territorial communities It is also a precondition for national and local policies that aim to better the economic base and quality of life for all This change is socially diffused economically sustainable over time and smart in its content A significant stock of social capital facilitates such results because it links into the process of development planning institutional decision makers and socioeconomic stakeholders who share trust solidarity norms and a community vision In the last thirty years social capital has become a forceful concept in the social sciences the subject of many scholarly works and a topic of keen interest and debate in policy circles Yet the main focus has been on defining and measuring social capital with little attention given to its value in promoting development policies Social Capital in Development Planning updates and advances the debate on social capital through the analysis of the application of the concept of social capital to programs for sustainable and smart socioeconomic development empirical findings and a new paradigm for development planning Subject Index of Modern Books Acquired British Library,1937 Color and Culture Ross Posnock,2009-07-01 The coining of the term intellectuals in 1898 coincided with W E B Du Bois s effort to disseminate values and ideals unbounded by the color line Du Bois's ideal of a higher and broader and more varied human culture is at the heart of a cosmopolitan tradition that Color and Culture identifies as a missing chapter in American literary and cultural history The book offers a much needed and startlingly new historical perspective on black intellectuals as a social category ranging over a century from Frederick Douglass to Patricia Williams from Du Bois Pauline Hopkins and Charles Chesnutt to Nella Larsen Zora Neale Hurston and Alain Locke from Ralph Ellison and James Baldwin to Samuel Delany and Adrienne Kennedy These writers challenge two durable assumptions that high culture is white culture and that racial uplift is the sole concern of the black intellectual The remarkable tradition that this book recaptures culminating in a cosmopolitan disregard for demands for racial authenticity and group solidarity is strikingly at odds with the identity politics and multicultural movements of our day In the Du Boisian tradition Ross Posnock identifies a universalism inseparable from the particular and open to ethnicity an approach with the power to take us beyond the provincialism of postmodern tribalism
