American Wines And Wine Cooking:

Wine and Wine Cooking Anne M. Logan, 1972      American Wines and Wine Cooking Shirley Sarvis, Robert Thompson, 1973      Top 100 Food Plants Ernest Small, 2009 This beautifully illustrated book reviews scientific and technological information about the world's major food plants and their culinary uses. An introductory chapter discusses nutritional and other fundamental scientific aspects of plant foods. The 100 main chapters deal with a particular species or group of species. All categories of food plants are covered including cereals, oilseeds, fruits, nuts, vegetables, legumes, herbs, spices, beverage plants, and sources of industrial food extracts. Information is provided on scientific and common names, appearance, history, economic and social importance, food uses including practical information on storage and preparation as well as notable curiosities. There are more than 3000 literature citations in the book and the text is complemented by over 250 exquisitely drawn illustrations. Given the current alarming rise in food costs and increasing risk of hunger in many regions, specialists in diverse fields will find this reference work to be especially useful. As well, those familiar with Dr. Small's books or those with an interest in gardening, cooking, and human health in relation to diet will want to own a copy of this book. Publisher's web site      Wine in Everyday Cooking Patricia Ballard, 1995-05-01 Popular California food and wine consultant Patricia Ballard has been impressing winery visitors for years with her food and wine magic. Within its pages, for example, we learn that Lifesavers candy owes its success to the canny marketing idea of placing the original flavor mint next to cash registers at bars. Patrons who bought them to mask the smell of alcohol on their breath before heading home soon found they were just as tasty sober, and the company began producing other flavors. Edited by Andrew Smith, a writer and lecturer on culinary history, the Companion serves up more than just trivia; however, including hundreds of entries on fast food, celebrity chefs, fish sandwiches, regional and ethnic cuisine, food science, and historical food traditions      The American Wine Cook Book Edward White Hatch, 1941      Cooking with Riesling Barbara Ray, Norm Ray, 2005      The America's Test Kitchen Cooking School Cookbook America's Test Kitchen, 2013-10-15 A landmark book from the test kitchen that has been teaching America how to cook for 20 years.
