Amerika in Kampf der Kontinente Sven Anders Hedin, 1945 Amerika im Kampf der Kontinente Sven Anders Hedin, 1992 Amerika im kampf der kontinente Sven Anders Hedin, 1943 The Explorer's Roadmap to National-Socialism Sarah K. Danielsson, 2016-03-16

Whilst terms such as Lebensraum are commonly associated with National Socialist ideology of the 1930s and 40s ideas of racial living space were in fact generated in the previous decades by an international geographic community of explorers and academics Focusing on one of the most influential figures within this group Sven Hedin this is the first study that systematically connects the geographic community to the intellectual history of the development of National Socialist ideology and genocidal practices The book demonstrates how colonial racial and nationalistic policies were often spearheaded by explorers and geographers such as Hedin In Germany Britain France and Russia their positions as publicly recognized authors and reputable academics made them highly influential with politicians Whilst this influence was to become most visible within Hitler s Germany the debates were not by any means restricted to or even originated in Germany Germany was the home of some of the most prominent geographers but this scientific community had a tradition of international debate and exchange with especially British French and Russian geographic societies and institutions Many issues that were later discussed and championed by National Socialist ideology were aired and debated in this international setting raising important questions about the international character and impact of National Socialism Tracing the intellectual history of the international geographic community and its relationship to National Socialism this study provides an assessment of Hedin s close involvement with the Nazi elite as a culmination of decades of political and scientific work In so doing the book uncovers a long ignored or overlooked important connection between exploration geographers and genocide

1939 - the War that Had Many Fathers Gerd Schultze-Rhonhof, 2011 Hitler and America Klaus P. Fischer, 2011-05-26

In February 1942 barely two months after he had declared war on the United States Adolf Hitler praised America s great industrial achievements and admitted that Germany would need some time to catch up The Americans he said had shown the way in developing the most efficient methods of production especially in iron and coal which formed the basis of modern industrial civilization He also touted America s superiority in the field of transportation particularly the automobile He loved automobiles and saw in Henry Ford a great hero of the industrial age Hitler s personal train was even code named Amerika In Hitler and America historian Klaus P Fischer seeks to understand more deeply how Hitler viewed America the nation that was central to Germany s defeat He reveals Hitler s split minded image of America America and Amerika Hitler would loudly call the United States a feeble country while at the same time referring to it as an industrial colossus worthy of imitation Or he would belittle America in the vilest terms while at the same time looking at the latest photos from the United States watching American films and amusing himself with Mickey Mouse cartoons America was a place that Hitler admired for the can do spirit of the American people which he attributed to their Nordic blood and envied

for its enormous territorial size abundant resources and political power Amerika however was to Hitler a mongrel nation grown too rich too soon and governed by a capitalist elite with strong ties to the Jews Across the Atlantic President Franklin Delano Roosevelt had his own far more realistically grounded views of Hitler Fischer contrasts these with the misconceptions and misunderstandings that caused Hitler in the end to see only Amerika not America and led to his defeat

Coca-Colonization and the Cold War Reinhold Wagnleitner, 2000-11-09 Reinhold Wagnleitner argues that cultural propaganda played an enormous part in integrating Austrians and other Europeans into the American sphere during the Cold War In Coca Colonization and the Cold War he shows that Americanization was the result not only of market forces and consumerism but also of systematic planning on the part of the United States Wagnleitner traces the intimate relationship between the political and economic reconstruction of a democratic Austria and the parallel process of cultural assimilation Initially U S cultural programs had been developed to impress Europeans with the achievements of American high culture However popular culture was more readily accepted at least among the young who were the primary target group of the propaganda campaign The prevalence of Coca Cola and rock n roll are just two examples addressed by Wagnleitner Soon the cultural hegemony of the United States became visible in nearly all quarters of Austrian life the press advertising comics literature education radio music theater and fashion Hollywood proved particularly effective in spreading American cultural ideals For Europeans says Wagnleitner the result was a second discovery of America This book is a translation of the Austrian edition published in 1991 which won the Ludwig Jedlicka Memorial Prize Hitler's Priestess Nicholas Goodrick-Clarke, 2000-10 As one of the earliest of Holocaust deniers and the first to suggest that Adolf Hitler was an avatar a god come to earth in human form to restore the world to a golden age Devi s appeal to neo Nazi sects lies in the very eccentricity of her thought combining Aryan supremacism and anti-Semitism with Hinduism social Darwinism animal rights and a fundamentally biocentric view of life Publisher informationt Amerika im Kampf der Kontinente Sven Anders Hedin (explorateur).), 1944 Fighting for the Essence Pierre Krebs, 2012 Dr Krebs offers a devastating critique of multiculturalism showing that although it claims to be the watchman of racial and cultural diversity it is actually destructive to both as it denies the significance of racial differences altogether He traces its origins to the legacy of the Judaeo Christian tradition and shows how this has developed into many of the most powerful tools of liberalism of our times These are serving the interests of the global marketplace by turning all of humanity into compliant consumers Those who endorse multiculturalism are in fact the enemies of all traditional culture Dr Krebs also takes issue with the use of the term West to describe our culture which he sees as an effort to deprive the various European cultures which comprise it of their unique characters and histories This will lead to their replacement by a grey conformity divorced from any authentic roots as well as a value system that is frequently used as a weapon against those nations which refuse to share them This assault is not limited to Europe but is something that is going on in every corner of the globe Dr Krebs says that it is time for all those who believe in the worthiness of their heritage and unique ethnic identity to return to the wellsprings of their peoples and defend what is rightfully theirs With a deeper trench between the camps of multiculturalism and traditional culture being dug all the time this is the conflict that will define the 21st century Drawing examples from many of the most notable contributors to science philosophy and religion Dr Krebs illustrates a truth that is difficult to deny Anyone who heeds his warning will find it impossible not to accept his challenge to take sides in the ongoing struggle against universal conformity Dr Pierre Krebs b 1948 is a major figure in Neue Kultur the German branch of the European New Right and is also the leader of the Thule Seminar He holds degrees in law journalism sociology and political science This is his first work to be translated into English
