A Country So Interesting Richard I. Ruggles, 1991-02-01 A vital part of A Country So Interesting are the annotated catalogues of all the maps known to have been produced by the Hudson s Bay Company 838 maps and 557 sketches While most are in the Company s archives in Manitoba Ruggles has tracked down maps in other collections particularly in various libraries in London England Also included are sixty six reproductions of the most important maps and map details Furs and Frontiers In the Far North John R. Bockstoe, 2009-09-15 This comprehensive history of the native and maritime fur trade in Alaska during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries is without precedent The Bering Strait formed the nexus of the circumpolar fur trade in which Russians British Americans and members of fifty native nations competed and cooperated The desire to dominate the fur trade fed the European expansion into the most remote regions of Asia and America and was an agent of massive change in these regions Award winning author John R Bockstoe fills a major gap in the historiography of the area in covering the scientific commercial and foreign relations implications of the northern fur trade In addition the book provides rare insight into the relationship between the Western powers and the Native Americans who provided them with fur ivory and whalebone in exchange for manufactured goods tobacco tea alcohol and hundreds of other things But this is also the story of the enterprising individuals who energized the Alaskan fur trade and in doing so forever altered the region s history Canadian Exploration Literature Germaine Warkentin, 2007-01-01 First published by Oxford University Press in 1993 Exploration Literature is a groundbreaking collection of early writing inspired by the opening of a continent With maps notes and thumbnail biographies of these early writers Exploration Literature is an entry point for both the casual reader and the student of Canadian literature into the beginnings of a literate response to the awe and wonder inspired by an unfolding geography and the literary fundamentals of new nationhood British Imperial Strategies in the Pacific, 1750-1900 Jane Samson, 2021-02-28 The focus of this volume is Britain s trans Pacific empire This began with haphazard challenges to Spanish dominion but by the end of the 18th century the British had established a colony in Australia and had gone to the brink of war with Spain to establish trading rights in the north Pacific These rights led to formal colonies in Vancouver Island and British Columbia when Britain sought to maintain a north Pacific presence despite American expansionism In the later 19th century the international scramble for the Pacific resulted in new British colonies and protectorates in the Pacific islands The result was a complex imperial presence created from a variety of motives and circumstances The essays selected here take account of the wide range of economic political and cultural factors which prompted British expansion creating tension in Britain s imperial identity in the Pacific and leaving Pacific peoples with a complicated and challenging legacy Along with the important new introduction they provide a basis for the reassessment of British imperialism in the Pacific region Great Plains Quarterly, 1993 Pierre-Esprit Radisson: The Collected Writings Germaine Warkentin, 2014-10-01 Pierre Esprit Radisson 1636 1710 was many men He was a teenager captured
