Crimes by the Capitalist State Gregg Barak, 1991-07-03 Crimes by the Capitalist State systematically examines a broad spectrum of state criminality including state terrorism torture and murder drug smuggling and arms trafficking espionage and surveillance and violations of internationally established human rights While exploring crimes by the state from both a national and international perspective this book also reflects the latest scholarship in comparative political and social science especially as these relate to current developments in the political economy the study of crimes by the powerful and theories on state and social control This book stresses the importance of studying crimes by the state as a prerequisite for peacemaking worldwide For example state crimes such as the Iran Contra Affair or the apartheid policies of South Africa should become the subject matter of criminologists and lay persons alike The collective evidence gathered here demonstrates that state criminality is primarily an organizational and structural phenomenon and only secondarily an individual phenomenon whether committed for ideological reasons or for personal profit

Poverty Reduction and the World Bank,2000-01-01 Improvements in social indicators have been substantial over the past 25 years but they have not been the same for those at the top and bottom of the distribution In fact the social indicators for those at the bottom have worsened in some cases substantially This annual publication reports on World Bank activities in fiscal year 1999 and provides an overview of what the Bank is doing to help countries face the challenge of reducing poverty It also looks at the future of Bank assistance at the national global and community levels Action on these three fronts represents the beginnings of a new strategic direction to be formulated in an implementation note after discussion of the World Development Report 2000 2001 on poverty is complete This new strategic direction includes a major program of knowledge sharing dissemination training and informed debate centered around the World Development Report and the Poverty Reduction Strategy Sourcebook
