Asian Migrations Beatriz P. Lorente, 2005 The migration of people within and beyond Asia no longer takes the form of permanent ruptures uprooting and resettlement Today such movement is more likely to be transient and complex ridden with disruptions and detours and based on translocal interconnections between places and multiple chains of movement Written from various disciplinary perspectives this collection of essays explores the migration experiences of a wide spectrum of people from professional and managerial elites to contract workers and refugees In addressing the nature of these Asian migrations the authors demonstrate how mobility in today's world has transformed notions of citizenship and identity and of displacement and home

Imagining Kashmir Patrick Colm Hogan, 2016 During the 1947 partition of the Indian subcontinent Kashmir a Muslim majority area ruled by a Hindu maharaja became a hotly disputed territory Divided between India and Pakistan the region has been the focus of international wars and the theater of political and military struggles for self-determination The result has been great human suffering within the state with political implications extending globally Imagining Kashmir examines cinematic and literary imaginings of the Kashmir region's conflicts and diverse citizenship analyzing a wide range of narratives from writers and directors such as Salman Rushdie Bharat Wakhlu Mani Ratnam and Mirza Waheed in conjunction with research in psychology cognitive science and social neuroscience In this innovative study Patrick Colm Hogan s historical and cultural analysis of Kashmir advances theories of narrative colonialism and their corresponding ideologies in relation to the cognitive and affective operations of identity Hogan considers how narrative organizes people s understanding of and emotions about real political situations and the ways in which such situations in turn influence cultural narratives not only in Kashmir but around the world

Writing Islam from a South Asian Muslim Perspective Madeline Clements,2016-04-29 This book explores whether the post 9 11 novels of Rushdie Hamid Aslam and Shamsie can be read as part of an attempt to revise modern knowledge of the Islamic world using globally distributed English language literature to reframe Muslims potential to connect with others Focussing on novels including Shalimar the Clown The Reluctant Fundamentalist The Wasted Vigil and Burnt Shadows the author combines aesthetic historical political and spiritual considerations with analyses of the popular discourses and critical discussions surrounding the novels and scrutinises how the writers have been appropriated as authentic spokespeople by dominant political and cultural forces Finally she explores how as writers of Indian and Pakistani origin Rushdie Hamid Aslam and Shamsie negotiate their identities and the tensions of being seen to act as Muslim representatives in relation to the complex international and geopolitical context in which they write

Revolving Around India(s) Juan Ignacio Oliva-Cruz, Antonia Navarro-Tejero, Isabel Sánchez Berriel,2020-01-21 This book highlights a variety of approaches to the study of contemporary India and offers a transnational gender and social research perspective on the concepts of Indian tradition the representation of the Indian diaspora and the emergent political activism in India The contributions suggest questions and answers about the various temporal and spatial loci inherent to India and its gender and ethnic differences The volume analyses different cultural texts and explores how they refer to equality and interculturality or promote discourses of fear and racism The multiple viewpoints and analyses found in this volume will broaden and stimulate both upcoming outcomes and studies on the future of India

Psychosocial Perspectives on Peacebuilding Brandon Hamber, Elizabeth Gallagher,2014-11-04 The book Psychosocial Perspectives on Peacebuilding offers a template for those dealing with the aftermath of armed conflict to look at peacebuilding through a psychosocial lens This Volume and the case studies that are in it starts from the premise that armed conflict and the political violence that flows from it are deeply contextual and that in dealing with the impact of armed conflict context matters The book argues for a conceptual shift in which psychosocial practices are not merely about treating individuals and groups with context and culturally sensitive methods and approaches the contributors argue that such interventions and practices should in themselves shape social change This is of critical importance because the psychosocial method continually highlights how the social context is one of the primary causes of individual psychological distress The chapters in this book describe experiences within very different contexts including Guatemala Jerusalem Indian Kashmir

Mozambique Northern Ireland South Africa and Sri Lanka The common thread between the case studies is that they each show how psychosocial interventions and practices can influence the peacebuilding environment and foster wider social change Psychosocial Perspectives on Peacebuilding is essential reading for social and peace psychologists as well as for students and researchers in the field of conflict and peace studies and for psychosocial practitioners and those working in post conflict areas for NGO s
