Coups Army Rule In Africa Studies In M:

The Resurgence of Military Coups and Democratic Relapse in Africa Adeoye Akinola, 2024-05-16 This book presents the reality of democratic reversals and waves of coups cutting through Africa explores the political economy of coups and through a case study approach provides a nuanced analysis of the negative impacts of coups in Africa and interrogates the roles of African regional organisations in curtailing coups and foreign powers in distorting the security architecture of African states particularly in the Sahel region It proffers sustainable policy templates for political development professionalism of the military and the subsequent withdrawal of the military from African politics Apart from its policy relevance it will serve as a resource pool for researchers working in the area of African political development peace and security and security sector reforms With the incremental exit of France from the Sahel the book will also offer a nuanced perspective on the scramble for the soul of the Sahel by non Western powers such as China Russia Turkey and Saudi Arabia

Military Marxist Regimes in Africa John Markakis, Michael Waller, 2013-07-23 First published in 1986 This is a collection of editorial and articles covering military Marxist regimes in the African locations of the Horn of Africa Benin the People s Republic of Congo Madagascar and Burkina Faso

Coups & Army Rule in Africa Samuel Decalo, 1990 Samuel Decalo presents detailed evidence from Dahomey Togo Congo Brazzaville and Uganda that African military coups are engineered by coterie of cliques composed of ambitious officers seeking self advancement He successfully refutes prevailing theories that military rule has fostered socioeconomic or political development or stability

The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights [2 Volume Set] Nat Rubner, 2023 A landmark study of the African Charter on human and peoples rights one of the most important documents in modern African history that positions it within the African Lives Matter struggle to assert an African identity rather than as simply a human rights document This set describes its underlying African origins and how the principles of the OAU influenced its path and content

The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights Volume 2 Nat Rubner, 2023 Landmark study of the African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights Documents on one side the international community s inability to foist a human rights system upon Africa and on the other the process within the OAU now African Union that eventually brought it into being and determined its content The African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights ACHPR which was proposed in 1979 adopted in 1981 and came into effect in 1986 was the first non Western declaration of human rights and the first official statement of an African human rights perspective With Africa largely absent in 1948 when the Universal Declaration of Human Rights UDHR was adopted it stands in stark historical reproach to the Western conception of universal human rights as a pivotal document in the decolonisation of the continent This book for the first time presents a comprehensive account of the development of the ACHPR which is key to a proper understanding of its fundamental nature Through documenting its process of construction it becomes possible to understand how Africans themselves understood the process and the issues involved and how the ACHPR became a political text asserted

by African leaders and not a continuum of a so called universal human rights tradition The result is a radical repositioning of the underlying context of the ACHPR one of the most important documents in modern African history of how it came to be and how it should therefore be understood Volume 2 describes the process through which the ACHPR came into being Analysing the role of Western governments the UN and NGOs it shows that contrary to the prevailing view of African human rights commentators their influence was limited and at times counter productive That in fact the formulation of the ACHPR was a profoundly political process that was primarily a product of an African desire to instigate its own human rights perspective as a counter to the human rights universalism advanced by the Western post war human rights tradition

The Crises of Postcoloniality in Africa Omeje, Kenneth, 2017-05-05 The Crises of Postcoloniality in Africa is an assemblage of transdisciplinary essays that offer a spirited reflection on the debate and phenomenon of postcoloniality in Africa including the changing patterns and ramifications of problems challenges and opportunities associated with it A key conceptual rhythm that runs through the various chapters of the book is that far from being demised postcoloniality is still firmly embedded in Africa manifesting itself in both blatant and insidious forms Among the important themes covered in the book include the concepts of postcolonialism postcoloniality and neocolonialism Africa's precolonial formations and the impact of colonialism the enduring patterns of colonial legacies in Africa the persistent contradictions between African indigenous institutions and western versions of modernity the unravelling of the postcolonial state and issues of armed conflict conflict intervention and peacebuilding postcolonial imperialism in Africa and the US led global war on terror the historical and postcolonial contexts of gender relations in Africa as well as pan Africanism and regionalist approaches to redressing the crises of postcoloniality

How Dictatorships Work Barbara Geddes, Joseph George Wright, Erica Frantz, 2018-08-23 Explains how dictatorships rise survive and fall along with why some but not all dictators wield vast powers

Ethnicity and Sociopolitical Change in Africa and Other Developing Countries Santosh C. Saha, 2008-03-07 This edited collection of essays answers a basic question posed by contemporary discourse on state building How might people's identification with a particular ethnic group matter Essays in this book use an integrated multi disciplinary approach to understanding regional and local community culture and socio political development in developing countries especially in Sub Saharan Africa to argue that the state as well as civil society confers on cultural differences a legitimacy that can be achieved in no other way but by positive cooperation Contributors from different countries look at local patterns in state building and modernization as they have unfolded over the course of the last fifty years They claim that the people and ethnic groups in most developing countries adhere to a concept of popular sovereignty that testifies that aspects of positive and moral ethnicity can contribute to social change as in China economic development as in India or in a democratization process as in Rwanda and Burundi The eventual methodological assumption made by these essays presumes that ethnic conflicts in such countries as Cyprus Turkey India and Rwanda have no moral sanction ethnicity has not assumed a political ideology One conclusion reached by the contributors is that some form of accommodation between opposing ethnically diversified groups as well as between state and ethnic elements is feasible

The Soldier and the Changing State Zoltan D. Barany, 2012-09-16 Looking at how armies supportive of democracy are built this title argues that the military is the important institution that states maintain for without military elites who support democratic governance democracy cannot be consolidated It demonstrates that building democratic armies is the quintessential task of democratizing regimes

Institutions and Democracy in Africa Nic Cheeseman, 2018-02-22 Offers new research on the vital importance of institutions such as presidential term limits in the African democratisation processes

A History of Modern Africa Richard J. Reid, 2020-01-09 The new fully updated edition of the acclaimed textbook covering 200 years of African history A History of Modern Africa explores two centuries of the continent's political, economic and social history. This thorough yet accessible text helps readers to understand key concepts, recognize significant themes and identify the processes that shaped the modern history of Africa. Emphasis is placed on the consequences of colonial rule and the links between the precolonial and postcolonial eras. Author Richard Reid, a prominent scholar and historian on the subject, argues that Africa's struggle for economic and political stability in the nineteenth century escalated and intensified through the twentieth century, the effects of which are still felt in the present day. The new third edition offers substantial updates and revisions that consider recent events and historiography. Greater emphasis is placed on African agency, particularly during the colonial period and the importance of the long-term militarization of African political culture. Discussions of the postcolonial period have been updated to reflect recent developments, including those in North Africa. Adopting a long-term approach to current African issues, this text explores the legacies of the nineteenth century and the colonial period in the context of the contemporary era. Highlights the role of nineteenth-century and long-term internal dynamics in Africa's modern challenges. Combines recent scholarship with concise and effective narrative. Features maps, illustrations, expanded references and comprehensive endnotes. A History of Modern Africa 1800 to the Present 3rd Edition is an excellent introduction to the subject for undergraduate students in relevant courses and for general readers with interest in modern African history and current affairs.

Political Development and the New Realism in Sub-Saharan Africa David Ernest Apter, Carl Gustav Rosberg, 1994. Since the 1950s, David Apter and Carl Rosenberg have been among the leading American scholars in African Studies. In this volume, they, along with other major specialists in the field, explore the new configurations of African politics. With tentative efforts at a revival of democracy now taking place, it seems appropriate to reassess the theoretical debates and empirical themes that have characterized postwar Sub-Saharan African politics. Focusing on new realism that has emerged among Africanists since the dismantling of colonial rule, the essays are presented as a corrective both to the initial euphoria informing African studies and to the later tendency to place blame for all Africa's political and economic difficulties on the receding specter of colonial oppression.

The Comparative Method and Civil-Military Relations J. 'Bayo Adekanye, 2024-10-11. Comprising critical writings in civil-military relations theory and research, this book of essays integrates the ideas and insights drawn from political science, particularly its subfields of comparative politics theory and methodology, both normative and empirical, with those from the combined disciplines of philosophy of science, history, sociology and development studies, bringing out the relevance of these ideas and insights for understanding and analysing the issues central to the place and role of military in the Nigerian society. This book will be useful to students, academics, journalists and activists working on Nigeria in particular and Africa in general. Print edition not for sale in Nigeria.

Sierra Leone David John Harris, 2014. A new political history of the former British colony in West Africa, best known for its diamonds and recent violent civil war, this covers 225 years of history and fills a gap in African studies.
