American Processional The Story Of Our C:

AN AMERICAN PROCESSION Alfred Kazin, 2013-10-02 An American Procession is a study on the largest scale of the major American writers at work during the historically and literarily crucial century that began in the early 1830s when Ralph Waldo Emerson founded a national literature on the basis of a metaphysical revolution and ended on the eve of the 1930s with the triumph of modernism and the critical recognition of the postponed power of those who had been modern before their time These one hundred years encompassed a period of unprecedented expansion and promise in the United States and the work of our novelists essayists poets and historians was the mirror of the nation s spirit The thirty years preceding the Civil War produced the transcendental idealism of Emerson Thoreau and Whitman and the dark romanticism of Hawthorne Poe and Melville In the years just after World War I modernism reached its exemplary form in the work of Eliot Pound Hemingway Dos Passos and Fitzgerald and between the two wars emerged the great realists Mark Twain Henry James Crane and Dreiser It is through an exploration of the lives and works of these writers together with Emily Dickinson William James Henry Adams and Faulkner that Kazin maps out a great literary procession shaped by individual genius by history and by the implacable American sense of self With each writer Alfred Kazin illuminates for us the work the influences that informed it and its influence on the work of others Each figure seems revitalized for us by Kazin s acuity and powerful sympathy for his subject An American Procession with its intellectual energy its clarity and breadth is the brilliantly executed capstone of Kazin s already illustrious career and will stand as the most important study of American literature in our time
