Section 1 Part 1: The Development of Constitutional Democracy

Lesson 1: The Influence of the Enlightenment

1.) How did thinking about the purpose and role of government change during the Age of Enlightenment? What new ideas about government emerged during this time period?

The Enlightenment redefined human existence and transitioned the political and religious absolutism of the Middle Ages to an existence more compatible with human individuality and liberty. Our beliefs about individualism, equality, liberty, rights of property, and freedom of religion came from the Enlightenment. It also gave government by consent, representative democracy, and constitutionalism.

Lesson 1.1: The Enlightenment in a Nutshell

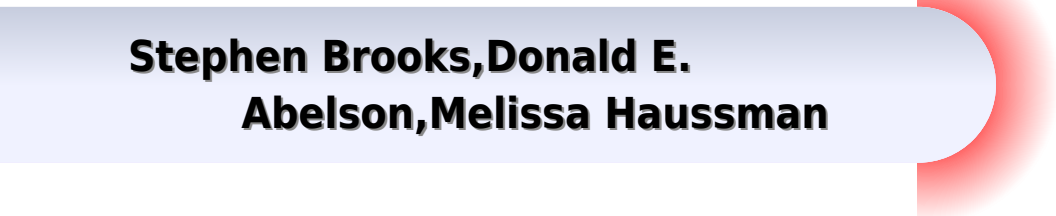

2.) What are natural rights?

Natural rights are said to be the God-given rights to life, liberty, and property, and no government can take them away.

3.) What did English political scholar John Locke mean in Two Treatises of Government when he argued that individuals each have a "natural right" to life, liberty, and property?
