American Aces against the Kamikaze Edward M. Young, 2013-09-20 This illustrated history describes the clashes between the US against the hastily created Kamikaze units of the Imperial Japanese Army and Navy Air Forces, some of the last large scale aerial engagements of the Pacific War. The Japanese High Command realised that the loss of Okinawa would give the Americans a base for the invasion of Japan. Its desperate response was to unleash the full force of the Special Attack Units, known in the west as the Kamikaze, Divine Wind. In a series of mass attacks, between April and June 1945, more than 900 Kamikaze aeroplanes were shot down. Conventional fighters and bombers accompanied the Special Attack Units as escorts and to add their own weight to the attacks on the US fleet. In the air battles leading up to the invasion of Okinawa, as well as those that raged over the island in the three months that followed the Japanese lost more than 7 000 aircraft both in the air and on the ground In the course of the fighting 67 Navy 21 Marine and three USAAF pilots became aces As Edward M Young shows in many ways it was an uneven combat and on numerous occasions following these uneven contests American fighter pilots would return from combat having shot down up to six Japanese aeroplanes during a single mission

American Nightfighter Aces of World War 2 Warren Thompson,Andrew Thomas,2013-02-20 An illustrated description of the famous US Nightfighter aces and their planes The Americans lagged behind their European contemporaries in military aviation in the late 1930s and it took the Battle of Britain to awaken America to the necessity of having aircraft that could defend targets against night time attack by bomber aircraft This book examines the numerous aircraft types that were used by the US in this role beginning with the early stop gap conversions like the TBM Avenger Lockheed Ventura and the A 20 Havoc P 70 It goes on to detail the combat history of the newer radar equipped Hellcats Corsairs and Black Widows that were designed to seek out enemy aircraft and which registered most of the kills made by the Navy Marine Corps and USAAF in 1944 45 With full colour profiles and rare photographs this is an absorbing account of an underestimated flying force the American Nightfighters
