Music and the Making of a New South Gavin James Campbell, 2005-12-15 Startled by rapid social changes at the turn of the twentieth century citizens of Atlanta wrestled with fears about the future of race relations the shape of gender roles the impact of social class and the meaning of regional identity in a New South Gavin James Campbell demonstrates how these anxieties were played out in Atlanta s popular musical entertainment Examining the period from 1890 to 1925 Campbell focuses on three popular musical institutions the New York Metropolitan Opera which visited Atlanta each year the Colored Music Festival and the Georgia Old Time Fiddlers Convention White and black audiences charged these events with deep significance Campbell argues turning an evening s entertainment into a struggle between rival claimants for the New South s soul Opera spirituals and fiddling became popular not just because they were entertaining but also because audiences found them flexible enough to accommodate a variety of competing responses to the challenges of making a New South Campbell shows how attempts to inscribe music with a single public fixed meaning were connected to much larger struggles over the distribution of social political cultural and economic power Attitudes about music extended beyond the concert hall to simultaneously enrich and impoverish both the region and the nation that these New Southerners struggled to create

Abel Kiviat, National Champion Alan S. Katchen, 2009-07-10 Abel Kiviat 1892 1991 was one of track and field s legendary personalities a world record holder and Olympic medalist in the metric mile A teenage prodigy he defeated Hall of Fame runners before his twentieth birthday Alan S Katchen brings Kiviat s fascinating story to life and re creates a lost world when track and field was at the height of its popularity and occupying a central place in America s sporting world The oldest of seven children of Moishe and Zelda Kiviat Jewish immigrants from Poland Abel competed as the Hebrew runner for New York s famed Irish American Athletic Club and was elected its captain Katchen s engaging biography centers Abel Kiviat s life and his sport firmly in the context of American social history As a quintessential New Yorker Kiviat embodies the urban and ethnic roots of American track From his first schoolboy competitions on city playgrounds to his world records at Madison Square Garden to his pioneering role as track s press steward in the age of emerging media Kiviat s life reveals how his sport was shaped by the culture of the emerging metropolis New York City is not only the setting for these developments but also a subject of the book The narration is enriched with brief portraits of celebrated track athletes including Kiviat s Olympic roommate Jim Thorpe In addition Katchen offers a detailed account of the I AAC s evolution including its close ties to the Tammany Hall political machine and sheds light on the rapid modernization of the sport and the ways it provided a vehicle for the assimilation of working class immigrant athletes Finally Katchen explores the social origins of the ideology of amateurism and its devastating impact on Kiviat s career Kiviat died at ninety nine just months short of carrying the torch for the opening ceremonies of the Barcelona Olympics Abel Kiviat National Champion pays tribute to a remarkable athlete and the sport during its most dynamic and celebrated era

Golden Gulag Ruth Wilson Gilmore, 2007-01-08 Since 1980 the number of people in U.S. prisons has increased more than 450% Despite a crime rate that has been falling steadily for decades California has led the way in this explosion with what a state analyst called the biggest prison building project in the history of the world Golden Gulag provides the first detailed explanation for that buildup by looking at how political and economic forces ranging from global to local conjoined to produce the prison boom In an informed and impassioned account Ruth Wilson Gilmore examines this issue through statewide rural and urban perspectives to explain how the expansion developed from surpluses of finance capital labor land and state capacity Detailing crises that hit California's economy with particular ferocity she argues that defeats of radical struggles weakening of labor and shifting patterns of capital investment have been key conditions for prison growth The results a vast and expensive prison system a huge number of incarcerated young people of color and the increase in punitive justice such as the three strikes law pose profound and troubling questions for the future of California the United States and the world Golden Gulag provides a rich context for this complex dilemma and at the same time challenges many cherished assumptions about who benefits and who suffers from the state's commitment to prison expansion

Uncivil War James Keith Hogue, 2006 Uncivil War reveals that the long term military impact of the South's occupation included twenty five years of crippled War Department budgets inflicted by southern congressmen who feared another Reconstruction Within Louisiana the biracial Republican militias were dismantled leaving blacks largely unarmed against future atrocities at the same time the nucleus of the state's White Leagues became the Louisiana National Guard which defended the Redeemer government's repressive labor policies White supremacist victory cast its shadow over American race relations for almost a century Moving between national state and local realms Uncivil War demystifies the interplay of force and politics during a complex period of American history

BOOK JACKET

The Death of Reconstruction Heather Cox Richardson, 2009-07-01 Historians overwhelmingly have blamed the demise of Reconstruction on Southerners' persistent racism Richardson argues instead that class along with race was critical to Reconstruction's end

The Met Jonathan Conlin, 2024-10-22 New York City's Metropolitan Museum of Art is one of the world's greatest cultural institutions Its holdings encompass a vast range including paintings sculptures costumes instruments and arms and armor and span

millennia from ancient Egypt and Greece to Islamic art to European Old Masters and modern artists How did the Met amass this trove and what do the experiences of the people who bought restored catalogued visited and watched over these works tell us about the museum This book is a groundbreaking bottom up history of the Metropolitan Museum of Art exploring both its triumphs and its failings Jonathan Conlin tells the stories of the people who have shaped the museum from curators and artists to museumgoers and security guards and the communities that have made it their own Highlighting inequalities of wealth race and gender he exposes the hidden costs of the museum s reliance on robber barons and oligarchs the exclusionary immigration policies that influenced the foundation of the American Wing and the obstacles faced by women curators Drawing on extensive interviews with past and current staff Conlin brings the story up to the present including the museum s troubled 150th anniversary in 2020 As the Met faces continued controversy this book offers a timely account of the people behind an iconic institution and a compelling case for the museum s vision of shared human creativity Out of Place Talmadge Wright,1997-05-08 Winner of the 1998 Distinguished Scholarship Award of the Section on Marxist Sociology of the American Sociological Association Homeless persons find themselves excluded repressed and displaced in all sectors of everyday life from punitive police and city zoning practices to media stereotypes Wandering through the streets of developing cities these poorest of the poor have no place to go More and more these city developments are not simply accepted passively rather resistance by organized homeless groups civil protests squatting and legal advocacy spread as conditions of everyday life deteriorate for the very poor Out of Place Homeless Mobilizations Subcities and Contested Landscapes details the development of two organized homeless resistances in two different cities From the redevelopment protesters and squatting activities of the Student Homeless Alliance in San Jose to the squatter camps of Tranquility City in Chicago the differences and similarities between both groups are highlighted within the context of city redevelopment policies Wright argues for considering homelessness not merely as an issue for social welfare but first and foremost as a land use issue directly connected to issues of gentrification displacement and the cultural imaginings of what the city should look like by those who have the power to shape its development How the homeless combat the restructurings of everyday life how they attempt to establish a place is understood within the context of tactical resistances Questions of collective identity and collective action are raised as a result of the successful organizing efforts of homeless groups who refuse to be victims The struggle between individual and collective forms of empowerment is highlighted with the conclusions pointing to the necessity to rethink and go beyond the traditional solutions of more housing and job training From the River to the Sea John Sedgwick,2022-07-05 A sweeping and lively history of one of the most dramatic stories never told of the greatest railroad war of all time fought by the daring leaders of the Santa Fe and the Rio Grande to seize control and create the American West Japan's Castles Oleg Benesch,Ran Zwigenberg,2019-05-02 Considering Castles and Tenshu Modern Castles on the Margins Overview from Feudalism to the Edge of Space From Feudalism to Empire Castles and the Transition

C. Koistinen,1997 In this volume Koistinen examines war planning and mobilizing in an era of rapid industrialization and reveals how economic mobilization for defense and war is shaped at the national level by the interaction of political economic and military institutions and by increasingly powerful and expensive weaponry The Fragmented Metropolis Robert M. Fogelson,1993-06-09 The most detailed study ever published of Los Angeles most critical period An invaluable aid to my understanding of this city David Brodsky author of L A Freeway Inventing Modern John H. Lienhard,2003-09-18 Modern is a word much used but hard to pin down In Inventing Modern John H Lienhard uses that word to capture the furious rush of newness in the first half of 20th century America An unexpected world emerges from under the more familiar Modern Beyond the airplanes radios art deco skyscrapers Fritz Lang s Metropolis Buck Rogers the culture of the open road Burma Shave Kerouac and White Castles lie driving forces that set this account of Modern apart One force says Lienhard was a new concept of boyhood the risk taking hands on savage inventor Driven by an admiration of recklessness America developed its technological empire with stunning speed Bringing the airplane to fruition in so short a time for example were people such as

Katherine Stinson Lincoln Beachey Amelia Earhart and Charles Lindbergh The rediscovery of mystery powerfully drove Modern as well X Rays quantum mechanics and relativity theory had followed electricity and radium Here we read how with reality seemingly altered hope seemed limitless Lienhard blends these forces with his childhood in the brave new world The result is perceptive engaging and filled with surprise Whether he talks about Alexander Calder an engineer whose sculptures were exercises in materials science or that wacky paeon to flight Flying Down to Rio unexpected detail emerges from every tile of this large mosaic Inventing Modern is a personal book that displays rather than defines an age that ended before most of us were born It is an engineer s homage to a time before the bomb and our terrible loss of confidence a time that might yet rise again out of its own postmodern ashes
