Americus I:

The Trotting Horse of America Hiram Washington Woodruff, 1868 Register Vermont Merino Sheep Breeders' Association, 1883 Return to Glory Hole Walter Bell, 2004 It was a great honor to be born on the same day in the same country as President Carter and I am also thrilled he selected my birthday to be his. You know I'm glad providence tapped the other child born ten miles away to become the thirty ninth president of the United States. I don't think I would have had nearly as much fun being president. Maybe you will agree after reading my story Beauty and the Botox David J. Holcombe, 2011-10-11 Beauty and the Botox is a collection of short plays by Dr David J Holcombe. Most follow a ten minute play format although some are considerably longer or may be played together as a one act. Issues evoked range from physician greed to issues of constitutional rights. Several deal with medical questions including end of life questions during Hurricane Katrina or the consequences of vaccination refusal. Despite the dreary sounding topics there are always a few laughs along the way regardless of the gravity of the situation. Most of the plays require no more than two actors although some require up to six. Set requirements are minimal just right for the small black box theater or student productions. Several plays have been produced by Spectral Sisters Productions and have passed the test of audience approval. From intimate to grandiose from lighthearted to heart wrenching there is something for every lover of the short play in this unusual collection.

Roots in the Cotton Patch Kirk Lyman-Barner, Cori Lyman-Barner, 2014-07-11 In honor of what would have been Clarence Jordan's one hundredth birthday and the seventieth anniversary of Koinonia Farm the first Clarence Jordan Symposium convened in historic Sumter County Georgia in 2012 gathering theologians historians actors and activists in civil rights housing agriculture and fair trade businesses to celebrate a remarkable individual and his continuing influence. Clarence Jordan 1912-1969 a farmer and New Testament Greek scholar was the author of the Cotton Patch versions of the New Testament and the founder of Koinonia Farm a small but influential religious community in southwest Georgia. Roots in the Cotton Patch Volume 1 contains Symposium presentations addressing Clarence's influence as a storyteller and contextual preacher and prophet his pacifist witness in a violent and segregated South and the contemporary meaning of his life's work in Christian community. Uniting these powerful essays is the obvious impact Jordan's life has had on so many. His life and work continue to inspire a new generation of activists seminary students and people in search of the meaning of Christian community The Sentinels of Andersonville Tracy Groot, 2014-01-17 2015 Christy Award winner ECPA 2015 Christian Book Award Finalist. Near the end of the Civil War inhumane conditions at Andersonville Prison caused the deaths of 13,000 Union soldiers in only one year. In this gripping and affecting novel three young Confederates and an entire town come face to face with the prison's atrocities and will learn the cost of compassion when withheld and when given. Sentry Dance Pickett has watched helpless for months as conditions in the camp worsen by the day. He knows any mercy will be seen as treason. Southern belle Violet Stiles cannot believe the good folk of Americus would knowingly condone such barbarism despite the losses they've suffered When her goodwill campaign stirs up accusations of Union sympathies and endangers her family however she realizes she must tread carefully Confederate corporal Emery Jones didn't expect to find camaraderie with the Union prisoner he escorted to Andersonville But the soldier's wit and integrity strike a chord in Emery How could this man be an enemy Emery vows that their unlikely friendship will survive the war little knowing what that promise will cost him As these three young Rebels cross paths Emery leads Dance and Violet to a daring act that could hang them for treason Wrestling with God's harsh truth they must decide once and for all Who is my neighbor Lost At Sea Patrick
