The Torn Veil Daniel M. Gurtner, 2006-12-21 In this 2006 text Daniel M Gurtner examines the meaning of the rending of the veil at the death of Jesus in Matthew 27:51a by considering the functions of the veil in the Old Testament and its symbolism in Second Temple and Rabbinic Judaism Gurtner incorporates these elements into a compositional exegesis of the rending text in Matthew He concludes that the rending of the veil is an apocalyptic assertion like the opening of heaven revealing in part end time images drawn from Ezekiel 37 Moreover when the veil is torn Matthew depicts the cessation of its function articulating the atoning role of Christ's death which gives access to God not simply in the sense of entering the Holy of Holies as in Hebrews but in trademark Matthean Emmanuel Christology God with us This underscores the significance of Jesus atoning death in the first gospel

The Incense and the Glory
 Golden Censer Ministries,2019-08-13 Have You Ever Wondered That if our bodies are the temple of the Holy Spirit how the details about the Old Testament Temple apply to us How to scripturally prove that the throne of God is in the heart of man What the incense in the Temple symbolized How the King of kings can be seated upon His throne in our hearts How a lamb could be used to atone for the sins of the world when the yearly atonement for the sins of the nation of Israel only mention a bullock and a goat What the contents of the Ark of the Covenant were and how they relate to us What the extra vessel of oil is that five of the ten virgins had and how to get it What the Great White Throne is How that without contradiction ALL judgment is given to Jesus Christ and at the same time the saints will judge the earth and even angels How that we should judge not and at the same time that we should judge righteous judgment If God truly looks ONLY upon the heart What the Seven Thunders of Revelations Chapter 10 are What defines and distinguishes between legalism religiosity and true holiness How our entire being can be as completely filled with the glorious presence of God as the Tabernacle was This book scripturally answers all of these questions and more much more When God brings the fullness of His Word into manifestation in a glorious church without spot or wrinkle or any such thing it will be the fullness of the Word of God being made manifest and it will not fulfill any extra biblical tradition Because it is God putting on display the culture of heaven in a manifestation of the One New Adam
