Courtyard Housing In Los Angeles:

Courtyard Housing in Los Angeles Stefanos Polyzoides, Roger Sherwood, James Tice, 1992 Essays drawings plans and over 200 black and white photographs document the courtyard housing in Los Angeles The style expressed in both grand and humble dwellings was at its height in the 1920 s and 1930 s but is still around to provide privacy and greenspace in the dense urban area Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Courtyard Housing in Los Angeles Stefanos Polyzoides, 1982 Courtyard Housing Brian Edwards, 2006 This book demonstrates through discussions on sustainability and regional identity and via a series of case studies that the courtyard housing form has a future as well as a past

Courtyard Housing for Health and Happiness Donia Zhang, 2016-03-09 Health and happiness are fundamental to human quality of life The United Nations World Happiness Report 2012 reflects a new worldwide call for governments to include happiness as a criterion to their policies The Healthy Cities or Happy Cities movement has been endorsed by the WHO since 1986 and a Healthy House or Happy Home is a critical constituent of a healthy city or a happy city Nevertheless the concept has not been fully explored Existing literature on the healthy house has often focused on the technical economic environmental or biochemical aspects while current scholarship on the happy home commonly centers on interior decoration Few studies have addressed the importance of social and cultural factors that affect the health and happiness of the occupants Identifying four key themes in Chinese philosophy to promote health and happiness at home this book links architecture with Chinese philosophy social sciences and the humanities and in doing so argues that Architectural Multiculturalism is a vital ideology to guide housing design in North America Using both qualitative and quantitative evidence gathered from ethnic Chinese and non Chinese living in the USA and Canada the study proposes that the Courtyard is a central component to promote social and cultural health and happiness of residents It further details courtyard garden house design strategies that combine a sense of privacy with a feeling of community as represented in courtyard housing The schemes may have universal implications Courtyard Housing and Cultural Sustainability Donia Zhang, 2016-05-13 Cultural sustainability is a very important aspect of the overall sustainability framework and is regarded as the fourth pillar alongside the other three environmental economic and social sustainability However the concept is neither fully explored nor widely accepted or recognized This book elicits the interplay of nature culture architecture and theorizes the concept of cultural sustainability and culturally sustainable architecture It identifies four key themes in Chinese philosophy Harmony with Heaven Harmony with Earth Harmony with Humans and Harmony with Self along with Greek philosopher Aristotle s physics form space matter and time it sets them as criteria to evaluate the renewed and new courtyard housing projects constructed in China since the 1990s Using an innovative architectural and social science approach this book examines the political economic social and spatial factors that affect cultural sustainability Supported by a multiplicity of data including field surveys interviews with residents architects and planners time diaries drawings photos planning documents observation notes and real estate brochures the book proposes new courtyard garden house design strategies that promote healthy communities and human care for one another a concept that is universally applicable The volume is a first opportunity to take a holistic view to encompass eastern and western tangible and intangible cultures in the theorization of cultural sustainability and culturally sustainable architecture It is a comprehensive contribution to architectural theory

Courtyards John Reynolds, 2002 Courtyards presents a survey of courtyards contemporary design guidelines and a diverse selection of examples Readers will acquire a basic understanding of the balance that must exist between garden and building including practical advice for planting BOOK JACKET Los Angeles Magazine, 2001-10 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian The Architecture of Affordable Housing Sam Davis, 1995 This text is about the design of dignified affordable housing for those not served by the private sector and how that housing fits comfortably into our communities It is a non technical analysis for everyone interested in the creation of affordable housing Courtyards Douglas Keister, 2005 Striking full color photography complements a study of the use of the courtyard in indoor and outdoor design capturing a diverse array of examples that range from ancient Rome and medieval Europe to modern day San Diego tracing the history of the design style and explaining how a courtyard can set the mood and tone of any structure Affordable Housing Through Historic Preservation Susan M. Escherich, Stephen J. Farneth, Bruce D. Judd, 1996-12 A guide for developers of affordable housing on how to work with the U S Secretary of the Interior Contents benefits of rehabilitating historic buildings for affordable housing benefits to owners and developers benefits to tenants benefits to the community a successful approach to rehabilitation and solving common design issues in historic buildings and 11 case studies of successful projects Appendices Federal section 106 review state and local environmental review and historic building codes Glossary and bibliography High Life Matthew Lasner, 2023-04-04 The first comprehensive architectural and cultural history of condominium and cooperative housing in twentieth century America Today one in five homeowners in American cities and suburbs lives in a multifamily home rather than a single family house As the American dream evolves precipitated by rising real estate prices and a renewed interest in urban living many predict that condos will become the predominant form of housing in the twenty first century In this unprecedented study Matthew Gordon Lasner explores the history of co owned multifamily housing in the United States from New York City's first co op in 1881 to contemporary condominium and townhouse complexes coast to coast Lasner explains the complicated social economic and political factors that have increased demand for this way of living situating the trend within the larger housing market and broad shifts in residential architecture and family life He contrasts the prevalence and popularity of condos townhouses and other privately governed communities with their ambiguous economic legal and social standing as well as their striking absence from urban and architectural history

Courtyard Housing in Los Angeles Patricia Gail Motzkin,1982 The Courtyard House NasserO. Rabbat,2017-07-05 The courtyard house is one of the most enduring architectural forms transcending regional historical and cultural boundaries Its balance of simple appropriate construction environmental control and social and familial structures continues to engage architects and architectural historians That the courtyard house is still relevant today is indicated through its ability to accommodate continual transformation without losing any of its formal integrity and cultural roots This book presents a series of viewpoints on courtyard houses from different periods and in different regions around the world from the Harem courtyards of the Topkapi Palace and the low cost housing settlements of Protectorate Casablanca to contemporary design strategies for courtyard houses in the arid Gulf region Together the essays illuminate issues of particular relevance in architectural art historical and conservation discourses today

Exiled in L.A. Volker M. Welter,2025-11-18 The first English language volume to explore the work of architect Leopold Fischer and the inaugural study of his California legacy In 1936 Leopold Fischer 1901 1975 in exile from Nazi Germany arrived in California where he created a small but distinct oeuvre of mostly domestic architecture In contrast to his famous peers Rudolph Schindler and Richard Neutra immigrants whose Southern California buildings are frequently examined and who like Fischer studied with the modernist architect Adolf Loos Fischer and his California structures have until now escaped the attention of architectural history Exiled in L A examines Fischer s important yet overlooked contributions to Southern California architecture As the whereabouts of Fischer s archives remain unknown Volker M Welter grounds the designer s California works in comparison with his pre exile projects and the compositions of fellow architects in California In the 1920s Fischer created experimental working class housing estates in Germany that pioneered ecological construction and living practices Comparable to their predecessors Fischer s California buildings revolve around the functioning the organization of a home as he defined domestic architecture in 1926 Featuring new photography and detailed architectural plans this book is an original contribution to the literature on Southern California s built heritage

The Unfinished Metropolis Benjamin Schneider, 2025-10-21 In The Unfinished Metropolis Benjamin Schneider explores why America s favorite things to build freeways single family homes malls and downtown office towers are keeping us stuck in the past We deserve cities where housing is abundant public transit is fast and seamless and streets are for more than car storage To accomplish this we need to free ourselves from these outdated forms so we can experiment with new types of housing new uses for streets and new purposes for downtowns We need to embrace the art of city building Talking to urban designers planners and community advocates Schneider takes readers on an insightful and entertaining tour of how we can make our cities work better for us today and into the future

Neighborhoods National Endowment for the Arts, 1977 Placemaking Derek Thomas, 2016-04-14 End users provide the most valuable perspective and insights into how public social space should function Much of the failure of urban settings can be related to over structured urban environments which deterministically prescribe usage constraining instead of enabling socio spatial performance Planning decisions by specialists should be made with the participation of the end user to minimise uncertainty as far as possible creating enabling environments Placemaking An Urban Design Methodology presents a methodology that evaluates the preferences of urban dwellers and synthesises these with the planning specialist s expertise better representing all views Author Derek Thomas integrates the Sondheim Methodology with means to understanding cultural clues to create a matrix methodology that links planning primers with planning actions A unique new tool for community planners this book emphasises the importance of the community while taking into account the expertise of the planner in creating public spaces
