Elucidated by a catechism in prose, etc Ebenezer Cobham BREWER,1846      Poetical chronology of inventions, discoveries [&c.] ... from the conquest Ebenezer Cobham Brewer,1846      The Knights of the Crown D'Arcy Jonathan Dacre Boulton,2000 A significant contribution to the history of the political life and culture of the later medieval aristocracy MAURICE KEEN Orders of lay knights the most famous of which are those of the Garter and the Golden

Fleeces were founded at some time between 1325 and 1470 in almost every kingdom of Western Christendom and played an important part in the life of the court. Jonathan Boulton defines the monarchical orders as those with corporate statutes which attached the presidential office to the crown of the princely founder or made it hereditary in his house. Modelled either directly or indirectly on the fictional society of the Round Table, they incorporated varying numbers of elements borrowed from the older religious orders of knighthood and from contemporary institutions. This study explores the nature and history of thirteen orders and reveals them as not only an ingenious supplement to or replacement for the feudo-vassallic ties that still bound the leading members of the nobility to their sovereign but also as the most important institutional embodiments of the secular ideals of chivalry that were at the heart of the international court culture of the age.

Lives of the Queens of England from the Norman Conquest, 1854 The English writer Agnes Strickland (1796-1874) began her career writing poetry and romances before turning to biographical studies. This eight-volume series, written in collaboration with her sister Elizabeth and first published between 1840 and 1849, was her most ambitious project. It provides biographical accounts of the queens of England from Matilda of Flanders to Queen Anne. Hugely popular in the Victorian period, Lives of the Queens of England and its sequel Lives of the Queens of Scotland remain important landmarks in the development of biography as a genre and provide interesting perspectives on women's contribution to modern historiography. Volume 2 contains accounts of the queens from Isabella of Valois (1313-1383) to Anne Boleyn (1501-1536), the second wife of Henry VIII. The King's Men Neil R Storey, 2020-03-20 The 4th and 5th Battalions of the Norfolk Regiment were formed in the early days of The Great War as part of the Territorial Force and deployed with 54th East Anglian Division to Gallipoli in 1915. Most significantly, the 15th Battalion was unique in that it contained The Sandringham Company, the only unit to be raised entirely from a Royal Estate. Tragically, the Company, along with King George V's Agent Captain Beck, disappeared without trace on 12 August 1915, presumed to have been overcome by their Turkish adversaries. The Battalion was rebuilt and saw out the ill-fated Gallipoli Campaign, being evacuated to Egypt in December 1915 Thereafter the Norfolks served with distinction in Palestine as part of the Egyptian Expeditionary Force The Author has compiled a fascinating history of these Battalions distinguished service using contemporary records and personal accounts illustrated with a splendid selection of photographs The result is a fitting tribute to the memory of these brave volunteers
