Douglas Van Dorn, 2012-08-01 This is the one book on baptism that you must read It was seven years in the making The author believes that until a new approach is taken separations over the meaning mode and recipients of baptism will never be bridged This new approach traces the roots of baptism deep into the OT Scriptures When understood properly we discover that baptism is always the sign that God has used to initiate his people into a new creation Baptism in the NT is not new Rather it derives its origin from OT predecessors When we understand that baptism comes from baptism especially in its sacramental expression in the priestly covenant reasons for the NT practice begin to make perfect sense Now Baptists have an argument that infant Baptists can finally understand because we are beginning our argument in the same place Yet we continue to have very baptistic conclusions as to the mode and recipients of baptism because we root baptism in baptism rather than circumcision

Covenant Theology Phillip D. R. Griffiths, 2016-06-10 God has always dealt with his people through the covenant yet covenant theology from a Baptist perspective is a teaching that is all too often neglected Many Baptists don't know why they are Baptist If questioned they are most likely to respond by alluding to the mode of baptism rather than its underlying theology This book is easily accessible providing the reader with a clear understanding of the historical Baptist position The work points out the errors inherent in the Reformed paedobaptist paradigm and seeks to show that the only covenant of grace is the new covenant in Christ

Biblical Theology Jeong Koo Jeon, 2017-01-31 Dr Jeon's Biblical Theology is a timely must read for church leaders seminarians pastors and missionaries in the Global Mission Field It examines God's redemptive history in creation fall redemption and consummation as revealed in the Old and New Testaments Dr Jeon delves into the grand redemptive drama progressively demonstrated through the divine covenants as well as the manifestation of the eschatological Kingdom of God This book provides not only a proper redemptive historical vision of the Bible from Genesis to Revelation but also key ideas for the formation of a solid biblical worldview Dr Jeon demonstrates the intersection and union between biblical and systematic theology while exploring redemptive history Dr Jeon also emphasizes that we currently live in the eschatological age inaugurated after Jesus Christ's death and resurrection as the Mediator of the New Covenant This inaugurated eschatological Kingdom of God will be consummated after the Second Coming of Jesus Meanwhile the present age is occurring during the last days in which we live in the era of Global Missions by God's grace The community of the New Covenant church should humbly respond by participating in evangelism and missions demonstrating to the world that God's final judgment is coming

Covenant Lord and Cultic Boundary Michael Beck, 2023-02-02 The Reformed Two Kingdom project has generated a great deal of literature However this literature is often characterized by inflamed rhetoric Further though it is standard fare to assume that Kline was the architect of the project in reality there has been very little scholarly examination of this point In response Kline's system is analyzed through the means of a dialectical discourse with three differing models within the Reformed tradition the Theonomist Perspectivalist and Dooyeweerdian schools Through this means the study keeps away from surface level polemics and instead directs readers to the critically important substructural level of current discussions While clarifying some of the key differences between Kline and his interlocutors often overlooked points of nuance are also highlighted These points are shown to be important in that they present the potential to lessen frustration and impasse in the ongoing dialogue

Remembering the Covenants in Song Young-Sam Won, 2019-08-20 In biblical and theological studies fresh perspectives and novel approaches can breathe new life into familiar subjects Remembering the

Covenants in Song reconsiders the Abrahamic and Mosaic covenant relationship through the unique biblical and canonical lens of a postexilic song In Psalm 105 the psalmist s intriguing intertextual engagement with both of Israel s great covenant traditions provides a rare glimpse into the covenant understanding of a postexilic biblical writer interacting with the Torah Remembering the Covenants in Song entails an intertextual study of Psalm 105 that brings the psalmist s rhetorical design and covenant references into a dialogue with the Torah s seminal covenant texts The examination of the psalmist s use of covenant references and allusions represents an innovative approach to assessing the rhetorical significance of intertextuality in biblical writings

The Covenant of Redemption John V. Fesko,2015-12-09 The covenant of redemption pactum salutis the eternal intra trinitarian covenant was a common staple within Early Modern Reformed theology yet there are very few historical works that examine this doctrine J V Fesko s study The Covenant of Redemption Origins Development and Reception seeks to address this lacuna In the contemporary period the covenant of redemption has been derided as speculative mythological a declension from trinitarianism or erroneously derived from one or two biblical proof texts Yet seldom have critics carefully engaged the primary sources to examine the different formulations supporting exegesis and ways in which the doctrine was employed Far from speculation sub trinitarian or a cold business transaction proponents of the covenant of redemption constructed this doctrine based upon a web of interconnected biblical texts and were very sensitive to maintaining a robust doctrine of the trinity as they employed this doctrine as a bulwark against the anti trinitarian claims of Socinian theologians Proponents of the doctrine also saw this pre temporal covenant as the embodiment of intra trinitarian love that overflows unto those chosen in Christ for their salvation and ultimate fellowship with the triune God John V Fesko explores the historical origins of the doctrine and then surveys its development in the seventeenth through nineteenth centuries examining key advocates of the doctrine including David Dickson Herman Witsius Johannes Cocceius Francis Turretin Patrick Gillespie John Gill Jonathan Edwards Charles Hodge and A A Hodge He then examines the contemporary reception of the doctrine in the twentieth century with a survey of the doctrine s critics including Karl Barth Herman Hoeksema Klaas Schilder and John Murray After exploring the claims of the critics the study moves to examine the views of twentieth century proponents including Geerhardus Vos Herman Bavinck Abraham Kuyper Louis Berkhof and G C Berkouwer

Biblical Theology James K. Mead,2007-01-01 In this the first overview of biblical theology in nearly thirty years James K Mead addresses the core issues of biblical theology essential to both Old Testament and New Testament study Can we draw theological principles from Scripture What methods will give useful results for theological exploration of biblical texts Aptly synthesizing classic and recent scholarship while asserting his own theological findings Mead provides an excellent overview of the history of biblical theology and a thorough examination of its basic issues methods and themes

Participation and Covenant Dick Moes,2024-03-13 In Participation and Covenant Contours of a Theodramatic Theology Moes develops a theological framework that has participation in the life of God in Christ through the Spirit as its integrative center In doing so he enters into conversation with covenant or federal theology particularly as it has been presented by Michael Horton in which the integrative center is the concept of the covenant He argues that God's fundamental relationship with humanity does not entail a covenant ontology a fundamentally legal and ethical relationship to God as we find in Horton's presentation but rather an ontology of participating in God's loving presence in Christ through the Holy Spirit For this relationship we were created and this participation is therefore natural to us Accordingly a theodramatic framework that incorporates a reframed understanding of divine human covenants and that has participation in the life of God in Christ by the Spirit as its integrative center is better able to give direction for clearly communicating the gospel in our secular culture and for properly shaping our Christian identity and practice in the face of the secularism that affects the church too than Horton's framework of covenant theology

The Witness of Jesus, Paul and John Larry R. Helyer, 2023-07-17 This book introduces the reader to the discipline of biblical theology In part one Helyer discusses the central problem of the unity of the Bible and the various options that have been proposed He then argues for a vital connection between the testaments forming one grand story of redemptive history and one central theme the coming kingdom of God Part two takes up the theology of three major witnesses Jesus Paul and John In these three witnesses Helyer finds the center of New Testament thought He emphasizes the importance of Jesus teaching as foundational for all the other the New Testament witnesses Without overlooking the diversity and individuality of the major witnesses he clearly demonstrates the theological unity that binds them together and provides the key to the enduring message of Scripture

Divine Covenants and Moral Order David VanDrunen, 2014-05-14 This book addresses the old question of natural law in its contemporary context David VanDrunen draws on both his Reformed theological heritage and the broader Christian natural law tradition to develop a constructive theology of natural law through a thorough study of Scripture The biblical covenants organize VanDrunen's study Part 1 addresses the covenant of creation and the covenant with Noah exploring how these covenants provide a foundation for understanding God's governance of the whole world under the natural law Part 2 treats the redemptive covenants that God established with Abraham Israel and the New Testament church and explores the obligations of God's people to natural law within these covenant relationships In the concluding chapter of Divine Covenants and Moral Order VanDrunen reflects on the need for a solid theology of natural law and the importance of natural law for the Christian's life in the public square 07 02

Federalism and the Westminster Tradition Mark W. Karlberg, 2006-10-15 More than any other theological tradition Reformed federalism has recognized the importance of the biblical teaching on the covenants in its system of doctrine This tradition came to mature confessional status in the writing of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms The place of the Westminster tradition within the stream of Christian history and theology is remarkable indeed Westminster not only gained recognition as the epitome of Calvinist teaching at the close of the Protestant Reformation the middle of the seventeenth century it also earned the reputation for precision and comprehensiveness in doctrinal formulation It became the measure by which biblical interpreters defended their systems of doctrine either in agreement or disagreement with the theology of the Westminster divines These writings are the climax of three decades of research and study and they appear as the third in the series of collections published by Wipf and Stock beginning with Covenant Theology in Reformed Perspective followed by Gospel Grace The Modern day Controversy The critical teaching in dispute in each of these studies is the classic Protestant antithesis between the Law and the Gospel what serves as the basis for the Reformed doctrine of the twofold covenants the Covenant of Works and the Covenant of Grace Protestant Reformed Orthodoxy now stands at the crossroads the plight of Westminster Seminary East and West is merely illustrative of the depth and the intensity of the contemporary theological dispute one impacting the future of Protestant evangelicalism as a whole The battle is between historic Reformed Protestantism and modern day revisionism of a radical sort The rapid rise of postmodernism or nonfoundationalism is indicative of the rapidly changing mood and posture in evangelical biblical scholarship at the opening of this third millennium of Christian interpretation Without question the modern church continues to lose her biblical moorings Forsaking the basic theological convictions of the Protestant Reformation it has attempted to subject the Word of God to vigorous academic i e scientific investigation the return of rationalism In doing so it has abandoned the Scripture principle which recognizes the uniquely authoritative and inerrant character of the Word of God

Lost in the shuffle is the uncompromising proclamation of the one true Gospel the Gospel of justification by grace through faith alone Lost also is the doctrine of the perspicuity of Scripture Nothing less than a new Reformation in our day will halt travel down the road leading to destruction From the Preface Covenantal and Dispensational Theologies Brent E. Parker, Richard J. Lucas, 2022-02-08 How do the Old and New Testaments relate to each other What is the relationship among the biblical covenants In this volume in IVP Academic s Spectrum series readers will find four contributors who explore these complex questions each making a case for their own view and responding to the others views to offer an animated yet irenic discussion on the continuity of Scripture
