Gastil, Barnett Singer, 2010-04-23 The Pacific Northwest for the purposes of this book mostly Oregon and Washington has sometimes been seen as lacking significant cultural history. Home to idyllic environmental wonders, the region has been plagued by the notion that the best and brightest often left in search of greater things that the mainstream world was thousands of miles away or at least as far south as California. This book describes the Pacific Northwest's search for a regional identity from the first Indian-European contacts through the late twentieth century, identifying those individuals and groups who at least struggled to give meaning to the Northwest experience. It places particular emphasis on writers and other celebrated individuals in the arts, detailing how their lives and works both reflected the region and also enhanced its sense of self. The Southwell diocesan magazine Southwell Notts. diocese, 1899 The Rural Poetry of the English Language Joseph William Jenks, 1856 The Encyclopædia Britannica, 1890 The academy, 1897 Where Rivers and Mountains Sing Theodore Levin, Valentina Süzükei, 2010-11-15 Theodore Levin takes readers on a journey through the rich sonic world of inner Asia where the elemental energies of wind, water, and echo the ubiquitous presence of birds and animals and the legendary feats of heroes have inspired a remarkable art and technology of sound making among nomadic pastoralists. As performers from Tuva and other parts of inner Asia have responded to the growing worldwide popularity of their music, Levin follows them to the West, detailing their efforts to nourish global connections while preserving the power and poignancy of their music traditions.
