Countryman Karl Black:

Countryman Karl Black Neville Farki,1981 The West Indian Novel and Its Background Kenneth Ramchand,2004 An account of the emergence of the West Indian novel in English this work provides valuable insights into the social cultural and political background offering concise and focused accounts of the growth of education the development of literacy and the formation of West Indian Creole languages Kingston David Howard,2005 David Howard a lecturer in Human Geography at the University of Edinburgh provides a guide to the history and culture of the city of Kingston Jamaica He has lived and worked in the Caribbean Race Today ,1982 The 'Black Horror on the Rhine' Iris Wigger,2017-11-24 This book explores the Black Horror campaign as an important chapter in the popularisation of racialised discourse in European history Originating in early 1920s Germany this international racist campaign was promoted through modern media targeting French occupation troops from colonial Africa on German soil and using stereotypical images of racially primitive sexually depraved black soldiers threatening and raping white women in 1920s Germany to generate widespread public concern about their presence The campaign became an international phenomenon in Post WWI Europe and had followers throughout Europe the US and Australia Wigger examines the campaign s combination of race gender nation and class as categories of social inclusion and exclusion which led to the formation of a racist conglomerate of interlinked discriminations Her book offers readers a rare insight into a widely forgotten chapter of popular racism in Europe and sets out the benefits of a historically reflexive study of racialised discourse and its intersectionality Natural Mysticism Kwame Senu Neville Dawes,1999 Dawes takes an in depth look at reggae as an artistic form exploring how reggae is both uniquely Jamaican and a music of world wide appeal His writing communicates his infectious enthusiasm for his subject Caribbean Folk Tales and Legends Andrew Salkey,1980 The Last Letter Home Vilhelm Moberg,2008-10-14 Considered one of Sweden s greatest 20th century writers Vilhelm Moberg created Karl Oskar and Kristina Nilsson to portray the joys and tragedies of daily life for early Swedish pioneers in America His consistently faithful depiction of these humble people s lives is a major strength of the Emigrant Novels Moberg s extensive research in the papers of Swedish emigrants in archival collections including the Minnesota Historical Society enabled him to incorporate many details of pioneer life First published between 1949 and 1959 in Swedish these four books were considered a single work by Moberg who intended that they be read as documentary novels These editions contain introductions written by Roger McKnight Gustavus Adolphus College and restore Moberg s bibliography not included in earlier English editions Book 4 portrays the Nilsson family during the turmoil of living through the era of the Civil War and Dakota Conflict and their prospering in the midst of Minnesota s growing Swedish community of the 1860s 90s It s important to have Moberg s Emigrant Novels available for another generation of readers Bruce Karstadt American Swedish Institute On the Upper Missouri Rudolf Friedrich Kurz,John Napoleon Brinton Hewitt,2005 In late 1846 Rudolph Friederich Kurz a young and idealistic Swiss artist came to the United States to study and paint American Indians Because he also had to earn a living he signed on with the Pierre Chouteau Jr Company commonly known as the American Fur Company and traveled northward on the Missouri River to work as a clerk at Fort Berthold and Fort Union in present day North Dakota While living among fur traders and Indians of numerous tribes Kurz filled a sketchbook and kept a detailed journal On the Upper Missouri an abridged and annotated version of his journal is an invaluable source for information about Fort Union the fur trade industry and Indians of the northern plains For this edition editor Carla Kelly has preserved Kurz s style but included only those portions of greatest interest to readers today his lively and detailed observations of people and activities at the fort The volume also features 97 black and white drawings from Kurz s sketchbook African American Urban History since World War II Kenneth L. Kusmer, Joe W. Trotter, 2009-08-01

Historians have devoted surprisingly little attention to African American urban history of the postwar period especially compared with earlier decades Correcting this imbalance African American Urban History since World War II features an exciting mix of seasoned scholars and fresh new voices whose combined efforts provide the first comprehensive assessment of this important subject The first of this volume s five groundbreaking sections focuses on black migration and Latino immigration examining tensions and alliances that emerged between African Americans and other groups Exploring the challenges of residential segregation and deindustrialization later sections tackle such topics as the real estate industry s discriminatory practices the movement of middle class blacks to the suburbs and the influence of black urban activists on national employment and social welfare policies Another group of contributors examines these themes through the lens of gender chronicling deindustrialization s disproportionate impact on women and women s leading roles in movements for social change Concluding with a set of essays on black culture and consumption this volume fully realizes its goal of linking local transformations with the national and global processes that affect urban class and race relations Afro-Americana Acquisitions University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. Library. Afro-Americana Unit, 1983 Bibliographic Guide to Black Studies Schomburg Center for Research in Black Culture, 1987 Jamaican National Bibliography , 1981

Cecil Rajendra Cecil Rajendra, 1989 CARICOM Perspective , 1989 Caribbean Writing , 1986 White Nile, Black Blood Jay Spaulding, Stephanie Beswick, 2000 This pioneering volume introduces and defines a new realm of scholarly investigation Over the course of a half century of independence the former Anglo Egyptian Sudan has been torn by extended periods of warfare during which the southern Sudan roughly defined by the basin of the White Nile has acquired an ever greater sense of separate identity During the same interval the Southern Sudan has been drawn increasingly into a web of diplomatic and geopolitical ties with neighboring lands with regional powers such as Egypt Israel and the oil states and occasionally with major international powers and interests The stakes of the conflict in Southern Sudan rise with the passage of each decade The present volume offers studies by leading African European and American scholars of and engaged participants in the experience of Southern Sudan The studies are grounded in an impressive array of disciplinary expertise including archaeology anthropology linguistics history political and military science religion cultural Studies journalism and development The Journal of Commonwealth Literature ,1985 Issues for 1965 include section Annual bibliography of Commonwealth literature 1964 Hour of Assassins & Other Poems Cecil Rajendra,1983 Jamaica Andrew Salkey,1983
