Contemporary artists are engaging more deeply than ever with religious imagery, themes, practices and audiences. With a bracing jargon free style Aaron Rosen, a leading scholar, art critic and curator takes readers into studios, galleries and worship spaces as he paints a compelling picture of art and religion today. Focusing on individual artists from eminent names to emerging stars, Rosen's essays and interviews tackle key questions from how art might sustain communities to how it might offer new approaches to conflict resolution. Drawing on years spent developing relationships with artists around the globe from Algeria to India to the United States, Rosen gets artists to talk often for the first time about how religion impacts their practice. Whether inspiring or unsettling, these brushes with faith challenge and invigorate the artists in question and those who ponder the results. Art and Love in Renaissance Italy Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Kimbell Art Museum, 2008. Many famous artworks of the Italian Renaissance were made to celebrate love, marriage and family. They were the pinnacles of a tradition dating from early in the era of commemorating betrothals, marriages and the birth of children by commissioning extraordinary objects: maiolica, glassware, jewels, textiles, paintings that were often also exchanged as gifts. This volume is the first comprehensive survey of artworks arising from Renaissance rituals of love and marriage and makes a major contribution to our understanding of Renaissance art in its broader cultural context. The impressive range of works gathered in these pages extends from birth trays painted in the early fifteenth century to large canvases on mythological themes that Titian painted in the mid 1500s Each work of art would have been recognized by contemporary viewers for its prescribed function within the private domestic domain
