

In this Gospel passage, Jesus uses two easily understood images to make an important point about the consequences of our actions. The first comes from a garden. No one would hope to find tasty figs on a thorn tree or luscious grapes on a bramble bush. The sort of person that I am profoundly influences the way that I act. For this reason becoming a good person is the most important object of my life. And this is not something that I can do without divine assistance

Courage, Church! Walbert Bühlmann, 1978 Courage, Church! Walbert Bühlmann (O.F.M. Cap), 1978 Courage, Church Walbert Bühlmann, 1978 African Religion in the Dialogue Debate Laurenti Magesa, 2010 Dialogue between African Religion and other world religions has regrettably been a much neglected area in formal religious discourse in Africa to date Moreover up to now the imperative of dialogue in the process of evangelism figures only peripherally if at all in the study of African Christian Theology This book is probably the first deliberate extensive and well argued attempt by an African theologian to fill this unfortunate lacuna How can Christian and African spiritualities interact with and enrich each other on the basis of mutual respect without as has historically been the case the one necessarily seeking to eradicate the other This is the fundamental question of dialogue discussed in the pages of this book Dr Laurenti Magesa is Senior Lecturer in African Theology at the Maryknoll Institute of African Studies and the Jesuit School of Theology Catholic University of Eastern Africa Nairobi Kenya Unconformed to the Age: Essays in Catholic Ecclesiology Tracey Rowland, 2024-07-01 Since her founding by Christ the Church on earth has recognized and sought to preserve her identity as one complex reality Lumen Gentium 8 formed of both the invisible and the visible the charismatic and the institutional Yet within modern Catholic life and theology the ordered unity of these dimensions is increasingly obscured and undermined by distortive tendencies toward democratization bureaucratization and secularization Such contemporary errors threaten not only the Church's self understanding but also her mission to restore all things in Christ In Unconformed to the Age renowned Australian theologian Tracey Rowland addresses the theological and ecclesiological deviations underlying the present ecclesial disorder including the prioritization of praxis over truth the occlusion of the Cross from its central position in the Church's life and the substitution of a secular corporate vision of the Church for its true construal as Christ's Body and Bride Catholic Inc versus communio Engaging especially with the thought and writings of Joseph Ratzinger as well as other twentieth century theological luminaries Rowland provides both insightful diagnosis of these current pathologies and a multifaceted illumination of the mystery of the Church underscoring the Church's divinely given vocation to bring all people into communion with the Trinity imbuing human actions lives and cultures with the grace of the Incarnation Subject Catalog, 1978 Library of Congress, 1978 Ecclesiastical Reform. Eight essays by various writers. Edited by O. first reflections on ecclesiology in the wake of Vatican II and his own earlier research into Bonaventure's ecclesiology and Duns Scotus's teachings on grace and personhood To Fehlner these studies along with his Tractatus de gratia and teaching notes on the mission of the Holy Spirit all from the 1960s contain the rationes seminales of the entirety of his later thought In part two we find writings mainly from the following two decades on the Conventual Franciscan charism the ecclesiola the church in microcosm Here we can readily discern the radical effects of Fehlner's encounter with Maximilian Kolbe and this volume's close affinity with volume six of this series on St Maximilian Kolbe In part three of this volume comprising essays from the final fifteen years of his life Fehlner brings his lifetime of prayerful contemplation and research directly to bear upon practical spirituality In these essays Fehlner's spiritual testament our author presents his Catholic and Franciscan charismatic vision of Christian life
