Courses Components And Exercises In Technical Communication:

Courses, Components, and Exercises in Technical Communication Dwight W. Stevenson, 1981 This anthology contains 21 articles on teaching methods and assignments in technical writing The anthology is divided into three major sections The first section Courses presents plans for alternative approaches to the teaching of technical writing The second section Components offers a variety of activities for major segments within a technical writing course The third section Exercises suggests individual activities that can be completed during a few class periods within a course or component Individual articles focus on the case method simulation and in class writing group projects the functional writing model writing for publication technical illustration environmental writing decision making and problem solving and teaching nonnative speakers how to use English language articles A supplementary reading list is included RL Managing Global Communication in Science and Technology Peter J. Hager, H. J. Scheiber, 1999-11-05 In compiling articles from eighteen professionals in the field of science and technical communication this unique collection updates readers on the evolving theory teaching and practice within the field A framework is provided on the direction practitioners and academicians can focus their research or application on Extensive discussions are provided on the management of the dynamic growth in international and intercultural communication in technical and scientific disciplines Emphasis is also placed on understanding the issues and training for effectiveness Resources in Education, 1994-08 Design Discourse David Franke, Alex Reid, 2010-10-06 Design Discourse Composing and Revising Programs in Professional and Technical Writing addresses the complexities of developing professional and technical writing programs The essays in the collection offer reflections on efforts to bridge two cultures what the editors characterize as the art and science of writing often by addressing explicitly the tensions between them Design Discourse offers insights into the high stakes decisions made by program designers as they seek to function at the intersection of the practical and the abstract the human and the technical

Technical and Business Communication in Two-year Programs Wendall Keats Sparrow, Nell Ann Pickett, 1983 Designed chiefly for the growing number of technical and business writing teachers in two year colleges this collection of articles helps teachers understand technology and business students so that they can teach courses that satisfy the writing needs of those students Written by practicing teachers or writers the articles offer viewpoints on central issues Principal assignments in freshman and sophomore courses in technical and business writing are given primary emphasis Because of their multidisciplinary orientation many of the selections are presented as resources for teachers in writing across the curriculum programs The articles are divided into six parts arranged essentially in the order that teachers would use the materials Each part addresses a central concern of teaching technical and business communication in two year programs 1 preparing to teach the subject for the first time 2 designing the basic course 3 broadening the basic course or designing a program 4 developing classroom strategies 5 constructing effective assignments and 6 teaching report writing The book ends with an extensive bibliography of resources designed to help teachers of technical and business writing grow as professionals
