Perceiving Power in Early Modern Europe Francis K.H. So,2016-10-05 This collection conceptualizes the question of rulership in past centuries incorporating such diverse disciplines as archaeology art history history literature and psychoanalysis to illustrate how kings and queens ruled in Europe from the antiquity to early modern times It discusses forms of kingship such as client kingship monarchy queen consort and regnant queenship that manifest gubernatorial power in concert with paternal succession and the divine right of the king While the king assumes a religious dimension in his obligatory functions justice and peace are vital elements to maintain his sovereignty In sum the active side of governmental power is to keep peace and order leading to prosperity for the subjects the passive side of power is to protect the subjects from external attack and free them from fear These concepts of power find concurrence in modern times as well as in non European cultures Through a truly cross cultural transnational multidimensional gender conscious and interdisciplinary study this collection offers a cutting edge account of how power has been exercised and demonstrated in various cultures of some bygone eras
