Communities & Courts in Britain, 1150-1900 Christopher Brooks,Michael Lobban,1997-01-01 The essays in Communities and Courts in Britain 1150 1900 all reflect the wider concept of legal history how legal processes fitted into the social and political life of the community and how courts and other legal processes were used by contemporaries In doing so they aim both to justify the study of legal history in its own right and to show how legal records including those of a variety of central and local courts can be used to further our understanding of a wide range of social commercial popular and political history

The Cartulary of the Treasurer of York Minster York Minster. Treasurer,Janet E. Burton,1978 Policing: A Short History Philip Rawlings,2012-12-06 Providing an overview of the history of policing in the UK the book investigates the changes in policing strategies over time and provides a historical foundation for contemporary debates It will be essential reading for anybody interested in the history of policing and in today s intense debates on what the police do Crime in Early Modern England 1550-1750 James A Sharpe,2014-06-17 Still the only general survey of the topic available this widely used exploration of the incidence causes and control of crime in Early Modern England throws a vivid light on the times It uses court archives to capture vividly the everyday lives of people who would otherwise have left little mark on the historical record This new edition fully updated throughout incorporates new thinking on many issues including gender and crime changes in punishment and literary perspectives on crime Family and Kinship in England 1450-1800 Will Coster,2016-06-10 Family and Kinship in England 1450 1800 guides the reader through the changing relationships that made up the nature of family life from the late medieval period to the beginnings of industrialisation It gives a clear introduction to many of the intriguing areas of interest that this field of history has opened up including childhood youth marriage sexuality and death This book introduces the elements that made up family life at different stages of its development from creation to dissolution and traces the degree to which family life in England changed throughout the early modern period It also provides a valuable synthesis of the debates and research on the history of the family highlighting the different ways historians have investigated the topic in the past This new edition has been fully updated to incorporate the latest research on urban communities emotions and interactions between the family and the parish town and state Supported by a range of compelling primary source documents a glossary of terms a chronology and a who s who of key characters this is an essential resource for any student of the history of the family Tudor York David Michael Palliser,1979 Tudor York The Archdeaconry of Richmond in the Eighteenth Century L. A. S. Butler, 2013-04-18 This 1990 publication is the first printed edition of early eighteenth century historical notes on Yorkshire parishes by the Bishop of Chester Medieval Manorial Records P. D. A. Harvey, Sylvia Thomas, 1983 Charters of the Vicars Choral of York Minster Nigel J. Tringham, 2013-02-14 This collection of charters published in 1993 illuminates the ecclesiastical economic and social history of medieval York Pettyfoggers and Vipers of the Commonwealth C. W. Brooks, 2004-06-24 This work charts the huge growth of the lower branches of the legal profession in sixteenth century England Baptism and Spiritual Kinship in Early Modern England Will Coster, 2017-03-02 Despite the importance of the subject to contemporaries this is the first monograph to look at the institution of godparenthood in early modern English society Utilising a wealth of hitherto largely neglected primary source data this work explores godparenthood using it as a framework to illuminate wider issues of spiritual kinship and theological change It has become increasingly common for general studies of family and religious life in pre industrial England to make reference to the spiritual kinship evident in the institution of godparenthood However although there have been a number of important studies of the impact of the institution in other periods this is the first detailed monograph devoted to the subject in early modern England This study is possible due to the survival contrary to many expectations of relatively large numbers of parish registers that recorded the identities of godparents in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries By utilising this hitherto largely neglected data in conjunction with evidence gleaned from over 20 000 Wills and numerous other biographical legal and theological sources Coster has been able to explore fully the institution of godparenthood and the role it played in society This book takes the opportunity to study an institution which interacted with a range of social and cultural factors and to assess the nature of these elements within early modern English society It also allows the findings of such an investigation to be compared with the assumptions that have been made about the fortunes of the institution in the context of a changing European society The recent historiography of religion in this period has focused attention on popular elements of religious practice and stressed the conservatism of a society faced with dramatic theological and ritual change In this context a study of godparenthood can make a contribution to understanding how religious change occurred and the ways in which popular religious practice was affected A - Airports British Library, 2012-05-21 No detailed description available for A Airports The End of Tradition? Ian D. Rotherham, 2014 The threats from global cultural change and abandonment of traditional landscape management increased in the last half of the twentieth century and ten years into the twenty first century show no signs of slowing down Their impacts on global biodiversity and on people disconnected from their traditional landscapes pose real and serious economic and social problems which need to be addressed now The End of Tradition conference held in Sheffield UK was organised by Ian D Rotherham and colleagues It addressed the fundamental issues of whether we can conserve the biodiversity of wonderful and iconic landscapes and reconnect people to their natural environment And if we can how can we do so and make them relevant for the twenty first century The book is in two parts Part 1 A History of Commons and Commons Management and Part 2 Commons Current Management and Problems
