John Carter, 1993 This thesis examines the literary career of Judah Waten 1911-1985 in order to focus on a series of issues in Australian cultural history and theory The purpose is not to discover a single key to Waten's writing across the oeuvre but rather to plot the specific occasions of this writing in the context of the structure of a career and the cultural institutions within which it was formed The Design Manual David Whitbread, 2001 A comprehensive reference guide to the design and production of documents Written as a companion volume to the Commonwealth Style Manual The Design Manual is an indispensable reference for traditional and digital publishing Magazines and Modern Identities Tim Satterthwaite, Andrew Thacker, 2023-09-21 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth century ideals of technological progress and mass consumerism shaped the print cultures of countries across the globe Magazines in Europe the USA Latin America and Asia inflected a shared internationalism and technological optimism But there were equally powerful countervailing influences of patriotic or insurgent nationalism and of traditionalism that promoted cultural differentiation In their editorials images and advertisements magazines embodied the tensions between these domestic imperatives and the forces of global modernity Magazines and Modern Identities explores how these tensions played out in the magazine cultures of ten different countries describing how publications drew on resisted and informed the ideals and visual forms of global modernism Chapters take in the magazines of Australia Europe and North America as well as China The Soviet Turkic states and Mexico With contributions from leading international scholars the book considers the pioneering developments in European and North American periodicals in the modernist period whilst expanding the field of enquiry to take in the vibrant magazine cultures of east Asia and Latin America The construction of these magazines modern ideals was a complex dialectical process in dialogue with international modernism but equally responsive to their local cultures and the beliefs and expectations of their readers Magazines and Modern Identities captures the diversity of these ideals in periodicals that both embraced and criticised the globalised culture of the technological era To Try Her Fortune in London Angela Woollacott, 2001-08-30 Between 1870 and 1940 tens of thousands of Australian women were drawn to London their imperial metropolis and the center of the publishing art musical theatrical and educational worlds Even more Australian women than men made the pilgrimage home seeking opportunities beyond those available to them in the Australian colonies or dominion In tracing the experiences of these women this volume reveals hitherto unexamined connections between whiteness colonial status gender and modernity Paper Empires Craig Munro, Robyn Sheahan-Bright, 2010-07 This new volume in UQP's History of the Book in Australia series explores Australian book production and consumption from 1946 to the present day In the immediate postwar era most books were imported into a colonial market dominated by British publishers Paper Empires traces this fascinating and volatile half century using wide ranging research Design in Australia, 1880-1970 Michael Bogle, 1998 This investigation of design explores the experience of poets painters critics museum curators and journalists to illustrate the vitality of the discipline Ghost Nation Laurie Duggan, 2001 A vividly written account of Australia's visual arts from

Surface and Deep Histories Anuradha Chatterjee, 2014-06-26 Surface in architecture has had a deeper and a more pervasive presence in the practice and theory of the discipline than is commonly supposed Orientations to the surface emerge collapse and reappear sustaining it as a legitimate theoretical and artefactual entity despite the twentieth century disciplinary definition of architecture as space structure and function Even though surface is defended for its pervasiveness Kurt Forster its function as a theoretical motif with generative power Andrew Benjamin and in constituting the operative principles of modern architecture as a visual phenomenon Mark Wigley it occupies the interstice or the space of the unconscious within architectural discourse from where it defends its legitimacy as architecturally valuable or functional as opposed to merely visually pleasurable Surface and Deep Histories positions surface within the scholarship of critical theory and design based approaches and invites academics and designers and art and architectural historians based in Australia to consider the uses figurations scales and typologies of surfaces The collection choreographs contributions that focus on a variety of topics such as montage and construction of colonial modernity and visual culture Molly Duggins wallpaper rational space and femininity Anna Daly the inter constituted nature of bodies clothes and cities Stella North the reconstruction of the urban surface through a true integration of information and topology M Hank Haeusler James Fergusson's theory of ornament Peter Kohane traditional and new verandahs in Australia Chris Brisbin contradictory effects of surface in Green architecture debates Flavia Marcello and Ian Woodcock and the thickness of thin curtain walls in contemporary Australian architecture Anuradha Chatterjee Surface and Deep Histories shows that surface is not thin spatially or conceptually It demonstrates that the practice of surface is simultaneously superficial and pervasive symbol and space meaningful and functional static and transitory and object and envelope
