The Cowboy Blake Allmendinger, 1992 The Cowboy uses literary historical folkloric and pop cultural sources to document the cowboy's role in the culture of the American West In doing so Allmendinger makes use of early oral poems recited by cowboys in the course of their work and later poems histories and autobiographies written by cowboys most of which have never before been studied by scholars

The Lone Black Cowboy - Book Set Oscar Micheaux, 2023-12-24 In The Lone Black Cowboy Book Set Oscar Micheaux crafts a compelling narrative that delves into the life of the African American cowboy during the early 20th century This work marries realism with elements of folklore revealing the often overlooked contributions and experiences of Black cowboys within the American West Micheaux's straightforward yet evocative prose exposes themes of identity race and resilience offering a rich tapestry that reflects the complexities of the African American experience during a time of pervasive segregation and injustice Oscar Micheaux a pivotal figure of early African American literature and filmmaking drew on his own experiences as a homesteader and filmmaker to create authentic portrayals of Black life Born in 1884 to former slaves Micheaux faced numerous societal challenges that fueled his desire to highlight marginalized voices in an era dominated by racial stereotypes His innovative storytelling and commitment to representing Black culture have left an indelible mark on American literature and cinema I highly recommend The Lone Black Cowboy Book Set to readers seeking both an engaging narrative and a deeper understanding of the contributions of African Americans to the tapestry of the American West Micheaux s work is not just a celebration of the cowboy life but a vital commentary on race and identity that resonates with contemporary audiences

Novel Competition Evan Brier, 2024-04-16 Novel Competition describes the literary and institutional struggle to make American novels matter between 1965 and 1999 As corporations took over the book business Hollywood movies popular music and other forms of mass produced culture competed with novels as never before for a form of prestige that had mostly been attached to novels in previous decades In the context of this competition developments like the emergence of Rolling Stone magazine regional publishers Black studies programs and New Hollywood became key events in the life of the American novel Novels by Truman Capote Ann Beattie Toni Cade Bambara Cynthia Ozick and Larry McMurtry among many others are recast as prescient reports on and formal responses to a world suddenly less hospitable to old claims about the novel's value This book brings to light the story of the novel's perceived decline and the surprising ways American fiction transformed in its wake

The American Cowboy Joe B Frantz, Julian Ernest, Jr. Choate, 2016-02 The cowboy America's most popular folk hero appeals to millions of readers of novels histories biographies and folk tales Cowboys command a vast audience on country radio television and at the movies but what exactly is a cowboy Authors Joe B Frantz and Julian Ernest Choate Jr reveal the real dyed in the wool cowboy as a heroic being from the American past who richly deserves to be understood in terms of reality instead of myth Here then is the definitive portrait of the American cowboy in frontier history and in literature reexamined revitalized and set in the proper perspective Many exciting accounts of cowboy life have been presented by such talented writers as J Evetts Haley J Frank Dobie Wayne Gard Walter Prescott Webb Edward Everett Dale Helena Huntington Smith Ramon F Adams and C L Sonnichsen But Frantz and Choate see the cowboy in relation to the entire panorama of western history and as part of a continuing tradition The American cowboy has carved a niche nothing it's a gorge in American affection as a folk hero and in this role we have surveyed him The American Cowboy The Myth and the Reality is illustrated with sixteen pages of the great cowboy photographs made more than a century ago by Erwin E Smith

Hicks, Tribes, and Dirty Realists Robert Rebein, 2021-10-21 Robert Rebein argues that much literary fiction of the 1980s and 90s represents a triumphant if tortured return to questions about place and the individual that inspired the works of Hawthorne Melville Twain Faulkner and other giants of American literature Concentrating on the realist bent and regional orientation in contemporary fiction he discusses in detail the various names by which this fiction has been described including literary postmodernism minimalism Hick Chic Dirty Realism ecofeminism and more Rebein's clearly written nuanced interpretations of works by Raymond Carver Cormac McCarthy Don DeLillo Louise Erdrich Dorothy Allison Barbara Kingsolver E Annie Proulx Chris Offut and others will appeal to a wide range of readers     We Who Work the West Kiara Kharpertian,2020-06-01 We Who Work the West examines literary representations of class labor and space in the American West from 1885 to 2012 Moving from Mar a Amparo Ruiz de Burton s representations of dispossessed Californio ranchers in the mid nineteenth century to the urban grid of early twentieth century San Francisco in Frank Norris s McTeague to working and unemployed cowboys in the contemporary novels of Cormac McCarthy and Larry McMurtry Kiara Kharpertian provides a panoramic look at literary renderings of both individual labor physical tangible and often threatened handwork and the epochal transformations of central institutions of a modernizing West the farm the ranchero the mine the rodeo and the Native American reservation The West that emerges here is both dynamic and diverse its on the ground organization of work social class individual mobility and collective belonging constantly mutating in direct response to historical change and the demands of the natural environment The literary West thus becomes more than a locus of mythic nostalgia or consumer fantasy about the American past It becomes a place where the real work of making that West as well as the suffering and loss it often entailed is reimagined     Big Book of Best Short Stories Owen Wister,John Fox Jr,Mary Austin,Ernest Haycox,Robert E.
