Music for the Common Man Elizabeth B. Crist,2009-01-12 In the 1930s Aaron Copland began to write in an accessible style he described as imposed simplicity Works like El Sal n M xico Billy the Kid Lincoln Portrait and Appalachian Spring feature a tuneful idiom that brought the composer unprecedented popular success and came to define an American sound Yet the cultural substance of that sound the social and political perspective that might be heard within these familiar pieces has until now been largely overlooked While it has long been acknowledged that Copland subscribed to leftwing ideals Music for the Common Man is the first sustained attempt to understand some of Copland s best known music in the context of leftwing social political and cultural currents of the Great Depression and Second World War Musicologist Elizabeth Crist argues that Copland s politics never merely accorded with mainstream New Deal liberalism wartime patriotism and Communist Party aesthetic policy but advanced a progressive vision of American society and culture Copland s music can be heard to accord with the political tenets of progressivism in the 1930s and 40s including a fundamental sensitivity toward those less fortunate support of multiethnic pluralism belief in social democracy and faith that America s past could be put in service of a better future Crist explores how his works wrestle with the political complexities and cultural contradictions of the era by investing symbols of America the West folk song patriotism or the people with progressive social ideals Much as been written on the relationship between politics and art in the 1930s and 40s but very little on concert music of the era Music for the Common Man offers fresh insights on familiar pieces and the political context in which they emerged Cowgirl, Say Yes Brenda Mott,2012-03-15 This hard nosed cattleman isn t ashamed to beg Widowed rancher Wade Darland freely admits that Tess Vega s way of thinking has him scratching his head He believes in shipping old barn animals off to auction whereas she s just set up a sanctuary for abused and abandoned horses He can t let a day go by without tucking in to some meat whereas she hears the word and it sends her fleeing And then there s the matter of Wade s children especially Wade s young daughter whose motherless childhood is so similar to Tess s own Tess s interference in the Darland family circle arouses Wade s ire and he implores her to say no to Macy when the little girl starts hanging around But after a few more encounters with the spunky redhead Wade is soon begging the cowgirl to say yes not just to Macy but to him too Cowboy and Cowgirl Poems

Alan R. Gatrell,2007-05 I will begin by telling you a little about the person who I am and how I came to write these pages Today I own and operate a real working cattle ranch along with a Country Western Bar and Grill Western Wear Feed and Saddle at the base of the Blue Ridge Mountains in North Carolina I grew up in a small farming community in rolling hills of rural Ohio I enlisted in the Military at age 17 and was selected by the US CID to do covert operations in the North Carolina region of USACIDC I worked as a CID Agent for 7 years and then left the CID but continued to work with special operations for an additional two years After 10 years of working as a covert undercover officer I decided to change direction and become and retired a North Carolina State Trooper The following poems and short stories were inspired by true events or friends who have touched my life in some matter and have forever changed my life It is said that friendship is clairvoyant With a true friend words are never needed What you enjoy doing together will come natural and such a friendship shall stand throughout the ages I hope you find such a friendship in your life and then you savor each day and share it with that someone special in your life as you go Whether we realize it or not everyone we know is very special to us When we look back on our younger years we will remember The people who went to school with us the people who made us laugh the people who hung out with us when nobody else would and the people who made our lives much better simply by being a part of it That s the wonderful thing about friendship you always feel loved and cared about The most important thing to remember is to always appreciate the friends that you have Seek out and find the time in each day to see the Beauty and Love in the world around you
