County Government In North Carolina:

County Government and Administration in the Tennessee Valley States Tennessee Valley Authority, M. Harry Satterfield, 1940 This report is one of a number of studies of local government which have been carried on in connection with the various programs of the Tennessee Valley Authority It undertakes to describe some of the more important developments and trends in county government in the seven Tennessee Valley States The study also outlines the organization and functions of counties and evaluates their suitability for administering the increasingly important services they now perform

North Carolina Government & Politics Jack D. Fleer, 1994-01-01 North Carolina has been a leader in the South and the nation since 1775 when it became First in Freedom by calling for its independence from British rule Throughout its history the state has had a reputation as a progressive force This book offers both an assessment and an examination of the realities of the state's leadership Analyzing a wide range of political actors and organizations which includes the state legislature the governor and executive branch the judiciary political parties interest groups and the media Fleer illuminates North Carolina's rich political history its evolving constitutional order and its changing political culture Although revealing a pattern of elitist paternalism in the state's political history the book illustrates a parallel pattern of popular participation and control Major forces of change are increasingly defining the state These transitional factors include a significant biracial electorate a stratified society a diverse electorate increasingly varied and mobilized political interest groups a competitive political party system and a more representative political leadership New challenges to the state's future development are its aging population the preparedness of its work force the globalization of its economy the protection of its natural resources and the education of its children for the next century Each new political debate policy choice and election reminds North Carolinians of their fundamental challenge establishing a government by enlightened and effective popular consent Jack D Fleer is a professor of political science at Wake Forest University and the author of North Carolina Politics An Introduction

Local Government Structure in the United States United States. Bureau of the Census, 1954 County Government in Colonial North Carolina William Conrad Guess, 1911 The New Politics of North Carolina Christopher A. Cooper, H. Gibbs Knotts, 2012-09-01 Political scientist V O Key in 1949 described North Carolina as a progressive plutocracy He argued that in the areas of industrial development public education and race relations North Carolina appeared progressive when compared to other southern states Reconsidering Key's evaluation nearly sixty years later contributors to this volume find North Carolina losing ground as a progressive leader in the South The new politics of the state involves a combination of new and old new opportunities and challenges have forced the state to change but the old culture still remains a powerful force In the eleven essays collected here leading scholars of North Carolina politics offer a systematic analysis of North Carolina's politics and policy placed in the context of its own history as well as the politics and policies of other states Topics discussed include the evolution of politics and political institutions the roles of governors the judicial branch interest groups and party systems and the part played by economic development and environmental policy Contributors also address how geography affects politics within the state region and nation Designed with students and interested citizens in mind this collection provides an excellent introduction to contemporary North Carolina politics and government Contributors Hunter Bacot Elon University Christopher A Cooper Western Carolina University Thomas F Eamon East Carolina University Jack D Flier Wake Forest University Dennis O Grady Appalachian State University Ferrel Guillory University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill Sean Hildebrand Western Carolina University Jonathan Kanipe Town Manager Catawba North Carolina H Gibbs Knotts Western Carolina University Adam J Newmark Appalachian State University Charles Prysby University of North Carolina at Greensboro Ruth Ann Strickland Appalachian State University James H Svava Arizona State University Timothy Vercellotti Rutgers University
