Canadian Books in Print Marian Butler,2000 Shoestring Soldiers Andrew Iarocci,2008-01-01 The Great War was a pivotal experience for twentieth century Canada Shoestring Soldiers is the first scholarly study since 1938 to focus exclusively on Canada s initial overseas experience from late 1914 to the end of 1915 In this exciting new work Andrew Iarocci challenges the dominant view that the 1st Canadian Division was poorly prepared for war in 1914 and less than effective during battles in 1915 He examines the first generations of men to serve overseas with the division their training leadership morale and combat operations from Salisbury Plain to the Ypres Salient from the La Bass e Canal to Ploegsteert Wood Iarocci contends that setbacks and high losses in battle were not so much the products of poor training and weak leadership as they were of inadequate material resources on the Western Front Shoestring Soldiers incorporates a wealth of research material from official documents soldiers letters and diaries and the battlefields themselves surveyed extensively by the author It marks an important contribution to the growing body of literature on Canada in the First World War

Re-Imagining the First World War Anna Branach-Kallas,Nelly Strehlau,2015-09-18 In the Preface to his ground breaking The Great War and Modern Memory 1975 Paul Fussell claimed that the dynamics and iconography of the Great War have proved crucial political rhetorical and artistic determinants on subsequent life Forty years after the publication of Fussell s study the contributors to this volume reconsider whether the myth generated by World War I is still part of the fiber of people s lives in English speaking countries What is the place of the First World War in cultural memory today How have the literary means for remembering the war changed since the war Can anything new be learned from the effort to re imagine the First World War after other bloody conflicts of the 20th century A variety of answers to these questions are provided in Re Imagining the First World War New Perspectives in Anglophone Literature and Culture which explores the Great War in British Irish Canadian Australian and post colonial contexts The contributors to this collection write about the war from a literary perspective reinterpreting poetry fiction letters and essays created during or shortly after the war exploring contemporary discourses of commemoration and presenting in depth studies of complex conceptual issues such as gender and citizenship Re Imagining the First World War also includes historical philosophical and sociological investigations of the first industrialised conflict of the 20th century which focus on responses to the Great War in political discourse life writing music and film from the experience of missionaries isolated during the war in the Arctic and Asia through colonial encounters exploring the role of Irish Chinese and Canadian First Nations soldiers during the war to the representation of war in the world famous series Downton Abbey and the 2013 album released by contemporary Scottish rock singer Fish The variety of themes covered by the essays here not only confirms the significance of the First World War in memory today but also illustrates the necessity of developing new approaches to the first global conflict and of commemorating new victims and agents of war If modes of remembrance have changed with the postmodern ethical shift in historiography and cultural studies which encourages the exploration of other subjectivities in war so far concealed affinities and reverberations are still being discovered on the macro and micro historical levels the Western and other fronts the battlefield and the home front Although it has been a hundred years since the outbreak of hostilities there is a need for increased sensitivity to the tension between commemoration and contestation and to re member re conceptualise and re imagine the Great War American Military History, Volume I Center of Military History,2005-05-20 Shipping list no 2006 0299 P v 1 and 2006 0290 P v 2
