Coleman, 1969 Courtaulds: an Economic and Social History: Rayon Donald Cuthbert Coleman, 1969 Cambridge Economics in the Post-Keynesian Era Ashwani Saith, 2022-11-11 This book chronicles the rise and especially the demise of diverse revolutionary heterodox traditions in Cambridge theoretical and applied economics investigating both the impact of internal pressures within the faculty as also the power of external ideological and political forces unleashed by the global dominance of neoliberalism Using fresh archival materials personal interviews and recollections this meticulously researched narrative constructs the untold story of the eclipse of these heterodox and post Keynesian intellectual traditions rooted and nurtured in Cambridge since the 1920s and the rise to power of orthodox mainstream economics Also expunged in this neoclassical counter revolution were the structural and radical policy oriented macro economic modelling teams of the iconic Department of Applied Economics along with the atrophy of sociology development and economic history from teaching and research in the self purifying faculty This book will be of particular interest to researchers in the history of economic thought sociology of knowledge political economy especially those engaged in heterodox and post Keynesian economics and to everyone wishing to make economics fit for purpose again for negotiating the multiple economic social and environmental crises rampant at national and global levels Rowntree and the Marketing Revolution, 1862-1969 Robert Fitzgerald, 1995-01-05 Rowntree and the Marketing Revolution 1862 1969 is a major study in the history of marketing in economic development in addition to being a history of a well known international company Marketing history remains a neglected field of study yet Rowntree s commercial success has been the direct result of applied marketing methods and major advances in product development branding and advertising It is surprising that marketing and mass consumption has been so neglected yet Rowntree was a marketing pioneer The company had in addition a prominent role in questioning managerial organization business culture industrial relations restrictive

practices and multinational business This book offers a comprehensive account of a company and its industry but pursues themes and seeks to answer areas of debate illuminating the ways in which marketing contributed to the growth of an enterprise

The Cambridge History of Western Textiles D. T. Jenkins, 2003 An authoritative study on the production and uses of textiles in Europe since ancient times

British Business in the Formative Years of European Integration, 1945-1973 Neil Rollings, 2007-12-10 This book questions conventional accounts of the history of European integration and British business Integration accounts normally focus on the nation state while Neil Rollings focuses on business and its role in the development of European integration which business historians have previously overlooked Business provided a key link between economic integration political integration and the process of Europeanization British businessmen perceived early on that European integration meant much more than the removal of tariffs and access to new markets Indeed British entry into the European community would alter the whole landscape of the European working environment Consideration of European integration is revealed as a complex relative and dynamic issue covering many issues such as competition policy taxation and company law Based on extensive archival research this book uses the case of business to emphasize the need to blend national histories with the history of European integration

British Economic Performance 1945-1975 B. W. E. Alford, 1995-09-14 The debate over Britain in Decline is one that still rages in the academic political and public spheres In this concise study B W E Alford takes issue with those economists who have a mechanistic approach to the subject Instead he examines Britain's economic development since the Second World War within a wider framework of political social and cultural factors He discusses topics such as post war reconstruction the theory of too few producers the alleged process of de industrialisation the role of sterling business organisation and management labour relations and the impact of government policy on Britain's economic development Professor Alford provides a clear introduction to the subject along with a survey of recent literature yet shows how complex and deep rooted are the causes of the British Disease
