Browning, Victorian Poetics and the Romantic Legacy Dr Britta Martens, 2013-05-28 Taking an original approach to Robert Browning's poetics Britta Martens focuses on a corpus of relatively neglected poems in Browning's own voice in which he reflects on his poetry his self conceptualization and his place in the poetic tradition She analyzes his work in relation to Romanticism Victorian reactions to the Romantic legacy and wider nineteenth century changes in poetic taste to argue that in these poems as in his more frequently studied dramatic monologues Browning deploys varied dramatic methods of self representation often critically and ironically exposing the biases and limitations of the seemingly authoritative speaker Browning The poems thus become devices for Browning's detached evaluation of his own and of others poetics an evaluation never fully explicit but presented with elusive economy for the astute reader to interpret The confrontation between the personal authorial voice and the dramatic voice in these poems provides revealing insights into the poet's highly self conscious conflicted and sustained engagement with the Romantic tradition and the diversely challenging reader expectations that he faces in a post Romantic age As the Victorian most rigorous in his rejection of Romantic self expression Browning is a key transitional figure between the sharply antagonistic periods of Romanticism and Modernism He is also as Martens persuasively demonstrates a poet of complex contradictions and an illuminating case study for addressing the perennial issues of voice authorial authority and self reference The Browning Saga Pasquale De Marco, 2025-08-14

Robert Browning, 1926 The Courtship Correspondence, 1845-1846 Robert Browning, Elizabeth Barrett Browning, Elizabeth Barrett, Daniel Karlin, 1990 The love letters of Robert Browning and Elizabeth Barrett remain among the most famous in history Daniel Karlin's selection based on a fresh examination of the original manuscripts provides new insight into the clandestine correspondence which led to their elopement in 1846 They poured the full resources of their minds and hearts into these complex and subtle letters as they explored each others needs desires passions and anxieties Together the letters tell the enthralling story of how they waited many years to elope overcoming many obstacles such as the neurotic presence of Elizabeth Barrett's father and the intense demands they made on one another This volume allows the reader to follow the story in all its scope and richness The Shelleys and the Brownings Rieko Suzuki, 2022-01-13 This book is about the intertextual relationships between the works of the Shelleys and the Brownings While a lot of research has been done on the relationship between Percy Bysshe Shelley and Robert Browning virtually nothing has been said about the links between Mary Shelley and Robert Browning and very little on the connections between the Shelleys and Elizabeth Barrett Browning Rieko Suzuki seeks to address this blind spot by focusing on three areas in particular firstly the way that Browning's later poems reflect back on and re engage with Shelley's work secondly Mary Shelley's influence on Browning's early poems and thirdly Shelley's presence in and influence on Elizabeth Barrett Browning's writing In mapping out the various ways in which texts relate to other texts the book also identifies a number of important thematic threads that run throughout the work of all four writers These include theories of history and historical consciousness providing a further dimension to the question of influence They also include ideas about exile gender liberal politics and cultural heritage central to almost all the texts discussed here as the Shelleys and the Brownings in different ways and in varying contexts tried to negotiate the possibility of a more tolerant and resilient social political and cultural environment Robert Browning
