Edward L. Korb,1983 The Society of Six Nancy Boas,1997 The Oakland Six may constitute the most important modernist development that occurred in this country during the 1920s William H Gerdt's author of American Impressionism

Society of Six Nancy Boas,2023-09-01 Six plein air painters in Oakland California joined together in 1917 to form an association that lasted nearly fifteen years The Society of Six Selden Connor Gile Maurice Logan William H Clapp August F Gay Bernard von Eichman and Louis Siegriest created a color centered modernist idiom that shocked establishment tastes but remains the most advanced painting of its era in Northern California Nancy Boas s well informed and sumptuously illustrated chronicle recognizes the importance of these six painters in the history of American Post Impressionism The Six

found themselves in the position of an avant garde not because they set out to reject conventionality but because they aspired to create their own indigenous modernism While the artists were considered outsiders in their time their work is now recognized as part of the vital and enduring lineage of American art Depression hardship ended the Six s ascendancy but their painterliness use of color and deep alliance with the land and the light became a beacon for postwar Northern California modern painters such as Richard Diebenkorn and Wayne Thiebaud Combining biography and critical analysis Nancy Boas offers a fitting tribute to the lives and exhilarating painting of the Society of Six
