Library Systems Branch, 1975 Song of the Alpine Joyce Gellhorn, 2002 Celebrating her life long love for the land above the trees author Joyce Gellhorn takes readers on a season by season tour of the alpine tundra With clear readable prose and 140 beautiful color photographs from her collection that spans some twenty five years Gellhorn reveals the subtle wonders of this haunting landscape The plants and animals that populate this often harsh and unforgiving environment have evolved remarkable strategies for survival in their high mountain home Faced with bitter cold scouring winds and fierce storms they must somehow hold on and still find water and nourishment Gellhorn tells us how they do it and the intricacies and precariousness of these strategies are astonishing The high country of the Colorado Rocky Mountains has been a destination and a home for Joyce Gellhorn for more than fifty years including some twelve years spent living with her family at the University of Colorado's research station Science Lodge a log cabin at 9 500 feet Like the snow that would sift through the chinks in the cabin the alpine despite its harshness captured her heart She writes The clear mountain air the scenery the invigorating feeling of physical activity and the fascinating plants animals and insects captivated me Through the years these wind blown forlorn places continue to excite me It is their wildness untamed and unpredictable No matter how many times I visit the alpine even areas I know intimately it always shows a different face

Thoughtful Foragers Steven J. Mithen, 1990-06-29 Thoughtful Foragers is about hunter gatherer decision making The author explores the implications of the human mind as a product of biological evolution for the way in which humans solve foraging problems He draws on studies from ethology psychology and ethnography prior to turning his attention to prehistoric hunter gatherers He attempts to construct explanations for patterns in the archaeological record by an explicit focus on decision making by individuals Thoughtful Foragers will appeal to specialists in European prehistory as well as to those interested in archaeological theory and method It makes some very significant advances which will be of real importance for the field of evolutionary theory in relation to human evolution and the evaluation of human social systems

Coyote Catherine Reid,2005-11-09 A beautifully written tribute to this tenacious and much misunderstood creature of the wild Bill McKibben When Catherine Reid returned to the Berkshires to live after decades away she became fascinated by another recent arrival the eastern coyote This species which shares some lineage with the wolf exhibits remarkable adaptability and awe inspiring survival skills In fact coyotes have been spotted in nearly every habitable area available including urban streets New York s Central Park and suburban backyards Settling into an old farmhouse with her partner Reid felt compelled to learn more about this outlaw animal Her beautifully grounded memoir interweaves personal and natural history to comment on one of the most dramatic wildlife stories of our time With great appreciation for this scrappy outsider and the ecological concerns its presence brings to light Reid suggests that we all need to forge a new relationship with this uncannily intelligent species in our midst More than a book about nature a narrative about home and family and about human attitudes toward the wild and unfamiliar The Boston Globe A captivating read worthy of joining the pantheon of literary ecological writing Booklist Enlightening a heartfelt often poetic case for coexistence between humans and the wild Publishers Weekly Sharing the Journey David Yellin,2017-05-12 This wonderful resource from two authors with an infectious enthusiasm for children s literature will help readers select and share quality books for and with young children Specifically focused on infants through the third grade Sharing the Journey contains descriptive book annotations instructive commentary and creative teaching activities tailored for those important years Extensive book lists throughout will help readers build a library of quality children s literature Books representing other cultures are included to help celebrate diversity as well as cultural connection Genre chapters include poetry fantasy and realistic and historical fiction A chapter on informational books demonstrates how young children can be introduced to and learn to enjoy nonfiction Golden Wings & Hairy Toes Todd McLeish,2009-07-31 A lively and often surprising look at fourteen of New England s most endangered species Animal Tracks and Hunter Signs Ernest Thompson Seton,2020-09-17 Within this volume Ernest Thompson Seton attempts to recount the actions and interactions of various woodland critters from their tracks alone From a weasel racing across the snow after its prey to hungry wolves themselves stalking a moose Seton imparts the basics of animal tracking in this half instruction manual half exciting narrative designed to inspire children Ernest Thompson Seton 1860 1946 was an English author and wildlife artist who founded the Woodcraft Indians in 1902 He was also among the founding members of the Boy Scouts of America established in 1910 He wrote profusely on this subject the most notable of his scouting literature including The Birch Bark Roll and the Boy Scout Handbook Seton was also an early pioneer of animal fiction writing and he is fondly remembered for his charming book Wild Animals I Have Known 1898 Other notable works by this author include Lobo Rag and Vixen 1899 Two Little Savages 1903 and Animal Heroes 1911 Many vintage books such as this are becoming increasingly scarce and expensive We are republishing this book now in an affordable modern high quality edition complete with a specially commissioned new biography of the author Golden Wings & Hairy Toes Kimberly A.
