Barth and Ecotheology Adrian Langdon,2025-03-31 Barth and Ecotheology offers a critical and constructive reading of Karl Barth s theology in the context of the Anthropocene It reflects on how a contemporary doctrine of creation must be broad enough to address issues such as climate change colonialism and racism sexism as well as integrating modern science Such a theology would resist the human domination of nature and the various forms of displacement occurring in modernity With Barth the author contends that a theology of creation grounded in the self revelation of God in Jesus Christ is the best place to rethink what it means to be human and to exist within the community of creation Nevertheless if we are to affirm the livingness of the world creaturely differences and a central place for land and place then critical additions to Barth are needed To accomplish this the book provides constructive reinterpretations of Barth s theological method doctrine of God creation by the Word and Spirit anthropology and reconciliation What emerges is a vision of the triune God of love as the source and ground of all that is Along the way Barth is brought into dialogue with ecotheology as well as theologians such as Wolfhart Pannenberg Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Bruce McCormack The volume will be of particular interest to theologians focused on the doctrine of creation ecotheology and Barth studies Animals and Society Margo DeMello,2012 This textbook provides a full overview of human animal studies It focuses on the conceptual construction of animals in American culture and the way in which it reinforces and perpetuates hierarchical human relationships rooted in racism sexism and class privilege International Perspectives in Feminist Ecocriticism Greta Gaard,Simon Estok,Serpil

Oppermann,2013-06-07 Exploring environmental literature from a feminist perspective this volume presents a diversity of feminist ecocritical approaches to affirm the continuing contributions relevance and necessity of a feminist perspective in environmental literature culture and science Feminist ecocriticism has a substantial history with roots in second and third wave feminist literary criticism women s environmental writing and social change activisms and eco cultural critique and yet

both feminist and ecofeminist literary perspectives have been marginalized The essays in this collection build on the belief that the repertoire of violence conceptual and literal toward nature and women comprising our daily lives must become central to our ecocritical discussions and that basic literacy in theories about ethics are fundamental to these discussions The book offers an international collection of scholarship that includes ecocritical theory literary criticism and ecocultural analyses bringing a diversity of perspectives in terms of gender sexuality and race Reconnecting with the histories of feminist and ecofeminist literary criticism and utilizing new developments in postcolonial ecocriticism animal studies queer theory feminist and gender studies cross cultural and international ecocriticism this timely volume develops a continuing and international feminist ecocritical perspective on literature language and culture Animals and the Environment Lisa Kemmerer, 2015-05-01 Contemporary Earth and animal activists rarely collaborate perhaps because environmentalists focus on species and ecosystems while animal advocates look to the individual and neither seems to have much respect for the other This diverse collection of essays highlights common ground between earth and animal advocates most notably the protection of wildlife and personal dietary choice If earth and animal advocates move beyond philosophical differences and resultant divergent priorities turning attention to shared goals both will be more effective and both animals and the environment will benefit Given the undeniable seriousness of the environmental problems that we face including climate change and species extinction it is essential that activists join forces Drawing on a wide range of issues and disciplines ranging from wildlife management hunting and the work of NGOs to ethics ecofeminism religion and animal welfare this volume provides a stimulating collection of ideas and challenges for anyone else who cares about the environment or animals

Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, 2012 Animal Voices Dawn Baumann Brunke, 2002-05-01 Animals ranging from mosquitoes to elephants use their own words to guide humanity to a deeper spiritual awakening Contains interviews with 25 professional animal communicators and over 100 different animals and animal spirits Provides a thrilling glimpse of the possibilities of direct animal human dialogue According to Echo an Arabian mare Humans are beings of love who have forgotten what love is and who they are Along with a host of other animal communicators Dawn Baumann Brunke gives animals like Echo a voice a direct line of communication to the human mind Through Animal Voices the animal kingdom delivers a message about deepening our spirituality and reconnecting with the web of life Our earliest ancestors had an ongoing shamanic dialogue with the animal kingdom but this ability has been lost to most in the modern world Brunke provides the techniques to reopen these connections reminding us that when we are open to communication with animals we are open to deeper layers of ourselves The main contributors to this book are actual animals who reveal themselves to be sentient beings with their own thoughts emotions and spiritual reasons for being on the planet How Brunke overcame her initial skepticism and learned to hear their voices is a fascinating story Throughout Animal Voices the author integrates her own reflections with those of the animals she interviews The result is something that will delight animal lovers and force skeptics to reconsider their ideas about the nature of animal consciousness and the possibility of telepathic human animal communication Animals as Persons Gary Lawrence Francione, 2008 Gary L. Francione explains our historical and contemporary attitudes about animals by distinguishing the issue of animal use from that of animal treatment. He then presents a theory of animal rights that focuses on the need to accord all sentient nonhumans the right not to be treated as property Barbiturate Abuse--1971-1972 United States. Congress.
