Love in a Time of Slaughters Susan McHugh,2019-04-29 Love in a Time of Slaughters examines a diverse array of contemporary creative narratives in which genocide and extinction blur species lines in order to show how such stories can promote the preservation of biological and cultural diversity in a time of man made threats to species survival From indigenous novels and Japanese anime to art installations and truth commission reports Susan McHugh analyzes source material from a variety of regions and cultures to highlight cases where traditional knowledge works in tandem with modern ways of thinking about human animal relations In contrast to success stories of such relationships the narratives McHugh highlights show the vulnerabilities of affective bonds as well as the kinds of loss shared when interspecific relationships are annihilated In this thoughtful critique McHugh explores the potential of these narratives to become a more powerful urgent strategy of resistance to the forces that work to dehumanize people eradicate animals and threaten biodiversity As we unevenly contribute to the sixth great extinction this timely compelling study sheds light on what constitutes an effective response from a humanities focused interdisciplinary perspective McHugh's work will appeal to scholars working at the crossroads of human animal studies literature and visual culture as well as artists and activists who are interested in the intersections of animal politics with genocide and indigeneity The Trojan Horse and Other Stories

Julia Kindt,2024-01-11 What makes us human What if anything sets us apart from all other creatures Ever since Charles Darwin's theory of evolution the answer to these questions has pointed to our own intrinsic animal nature Yet the idea that in one way or another our humanity is entangled with the non human has a much longer and more venerable history In the West it goes all the way back to classical antiquity This grippingly written and provocative book boldly reveals how the ancient world mobilised concepts of the animal and animality to conceive of the human in a variety of illuminating ways Through ten stories about marvelous mythical beings from the Trojan Horse to the Cyclops and from Androcles lion to the Minotaur Julia Kindt unlocks fresh ways of thinking about humanity that extend from antiquity to the present and that ultimately challenge our understanding of who we really are I Remember Syl & Other Stories Valentine Umelo,2009 I
