Animals, Machines, and AI Erika Quinn, Holly Yanacek, 2021-11-08 Sentient animals machines and robots abound in German literature and culture but there has been surprisingly limited scholarship on non human life forms in German studies This volume extends interdisciplinary research in emotion studies to examine non humans and the affective relationships between humans and non humans in modern German cultural history In recent years fascination with emotions developments in robotics and the burgeoning of animal studies in and beyond the academy have given rise to questions about the nature of humanity Using sources from the life sciences literature visual art poetry philosophy and photography this collection interrogates not animal or machine emotions per se but rather uses animals and machines as lenses through which to investigate human emotions and the affective entanglements between humans and non humans The COVID 19 pandemic made us more keenly aware of the importance of both animals and new technologies in our daily lives and this volume ultimately sheds light on the centrality of non humans in the human emotional world and the possibilities that relationships with non humans offer for enriching that world Watch our talk with the editors Erika Quinn and Holly Yanacek here https://youtu.be/RBMwXah_Om8

Proceedings of the World Congress on Vegetable Protein Utilization in Human Foods and Animal Feedstuffs Thomas H. Applewhite, 1989 Renewing the World Howard L. Harrod, 1992-02 A valuable resource for anthropologists ethnohistorians and western historians who wish to better understand ritual life in the Plains region Western Historical Quarterly Harrod's discussion of kinship and reciprocity in Northwest Plains cosmology contains valuable insight into Native American worldview and his emphasis on the moral dimension of ritual process is a major addition to the too often ignored subject of Native American moral life Journal of Religion Includes the major works on Blackfoot Crow Cheyennes and Arapaho religion the works to which anyone who wishes to understand the religious life of these tribes must continue to turn Choice Plains people Harrod suggests refracted nature and conceived an environmental ethic through a metaphor of kinship He is particularly skillful in characterizing the ambiguity Plains people expressed at the necessity of killing and eating their animal kin Renewing the World also contributes to another new and uncultivated science we might call ecology of mind Great Plains Quarterly Merleau-Ponty and the Face of the World Glen A. Mazis, 2016-09-21 Assesses Merleau Ponty s contribution to ethics as calling for a poetic interplay between perception and imagination and between silence and solidarity that reveals our place in the world and our obligations to ourselves and others Before his death in 1961 Merleau Ponty worried about what he saw as humanity s increasingly self enclosed and manipulative way of experiencing self others and the world the consequences of which remain apparent in our destructive inability to connect with others within and across cultures In Merleau Ponty and the Face of the World Glen A Mazis provides an overall consideration of Merleau Ponty s philosophy that brings out what he sees as a corrective prescription for ethical reorientation that is fundamental to Merleau Ponty s thought Mazis begins by analyzing the key role that silence plays for Merleau Ponty as a positive powerful presence rather than a lack or emptiness and then builds on this to explore the ethical significance of the face to face encounter in his thought as one of solidarity rather than obligation In the last part of the book Mazis traces the development of what he calls physiognomic imagination in Merleau Ponty s work This understanding of imagination is not fancy or make believe but rather brings out the depths of perceptual meaning and leads to an appreciation of poetic language as the key to revitalizing both ethics and ontology Drawing on Merleau Ponty s published works lecture notes unpublished writings and the work of many phenomenologists and Merleau Ponty scholars Mazis also offers incisive readings of Merleau Ponty s work as it relates to that of Antoine de Saint Exup ry Gaston Bachelard and Emmanuel Levinas
