Israel Digest, 1955 From Ambivalence to Betrayal Robert S. Wistrich, 2012-06-01 From Ambivalence to Betrayal is the first study to explore the transformation in attitudes on the Left toward the Jews Zionism and Israel since the origins of European socialism in the 1840s until the present This pathbreaking synthesis reveals a striking continuity in negative stereotypes of Jews contempt for Judaism and negation of Jewish national self determination from the days of Karl Marx to the current left wing intellectual assault on Israel World renowned expert on the history of antisemitism Robert S Wistrich provides not only a powerful analysis of how and why the Left emerged as a spearhead of anti Israel sentiment but also new insights into the wider involvement of Jews in radical movements There are fascinating portraits of Marx Moses Hess Bernard Lazare Rosa Luxemburg Leon Trotsky and other Jewish intellectuals alongside analyses of the darker face of socialist and Communist antisemitism The closing section eloquently exposes the degeneration of leftist anti Zionist critiques into a novel form of anti racist racism 'Arbeit Macht Frei' Batya Brutin,2024-05-06 Arbeit Macht Frei focuses on the various representations meanings and interpretations of the infamous phrase in art The origin of the expression recalls the novel by German philologist Lorenz Diefenbach 1806 1883 from 1873 and the Weimar Republic but is most associated with the National Socialists who used it at the entrances to six of their concentration camps The Nazis employed the slogan to misdirect with contempt and irony and to instill false hope in the minds of prisoners to help prevent resistance and insurrection Batya Brutin discusses Holocaust survivor artists and their descendants who are artists as well as others who use the well known phrase in their artwork These artists have used the inscription as a motif from a personal or general point of view to convey political messages present values or wrestle with universal perceptions This is the first booklength treatment of this difficult yet necessary topic in art The Holocaust Museum and Human Rights Jennifer Barrett,Avril Alba,Dirk Moses,2025-01-28 Interrogates the global and often controversial phenomenon of Holocaust and human rights museums Spanning six continents Europe Australia Africa Asia North America and South America this edited collection offers a comparative transnational study of Holocaust and human rights museums that foregrounds the overlapping and often contested work these institutions do in narrating and memorializing histories of genocide and human rights abuses for a public audience Museums that link the Holocaust with social justice human rights and genocide prevention have been founded in many countries for example the Kazerne Dossin Memorial Museum in Belgium the Anne Frank House in the Netherlands and the Johannesburg Holocaust and Genocide Centre in South Africa making Holocaust and human rights museums a global phenomenon It is not uncommon for these institutions to court controversy by linking the Holocaust to human rights issues in their locales and abroad Some begin from a Holocaust core and extrapolate from this history to address broader concerns while others integrate the Holocaust as a or at times the case study par excellence of human rights abuses Other institutions that may not explicitly focus on the Holocaust continue to engage these representational practices to highlight other instances of genocide and human rights abuses The case studies in this book illuminate the convergences between Holocaust and human rights museums in their demands for social justice and reparation educational and activist purpose design principles and curatorial choices But it also shows how these museums can also be sites of contestation around how stories of suffering courage and survival are told whose stories are prioritized and who is consulted Although Holocaust museums were once the most influential form of representation of human rights issues in the international museum and heritage fields they are now in dialogue visually spatially methodologically with museums and memorial sites concerned with human rights more broadly Interrogating debates in both museology and Holocaust memory studies this volume reveals how institutions dedicated to these concerns have become active and influential contributors to local national and transnational dialogues about human rights Contributors Avril Alba Brook Andrew Jennifer Barrett Jennifer Carter
