The Politics of Opposition in Contemporary Africa Adebayo O. Olukoshi, 1998 In South Africa Michael Neocosmos An Impossible Inheritance Katie Kilroy-Marac, 2019-05-14 Weaving sound historical research with rich ethnographic insight An Impossible Inheritance tells the story of the emergence disavowal and afterlife of a distinctive project in transcultural psychiatry initiated at the Fann Psychiatric Clinic in Dakar Senegal during the 1960s and 1970s Today's clinic remains haunted by its past and Katie Kilroy Marac brilliantly examines the complex forms of memory work undertaken by its affiliates over a sixty year period Through stories such as that of the ghost said to roam the clinic's halls the mysterious death of a young doctor sometimes attributed to witchcraft and the spirit possession ceremonies that may have taken place in Fann's courtyard Kilroy Marac argues that memory work is always an act of the imagination and a moral practice with unexpected temporal affective and political dimensions By exploring how accounts about the Fann Psychiatric Clinic and its past speak to larger narratives of postcolonial and neoliberal transformation An Impossible Inheritance examines the complex relationship between memory history and power within the institution and beyond

Reports on Trade at the Treaty Ports China. Hai guan zong shui wu si shu, 1868 Re-Situating Public Theatre in Contemporary France Ifigenia Gonis, 2023-05-10 This book examines the dynamics of the relational and spatial politics of contemporary French theatrical production with a focus on four theatres in the Greater Paris region It situates these dynamics within the intersection of the histories of the public theatre and theatre decentralization in France and the dialogues between live performances and the larger frameworks of artistic direction and programming as well as various imaginations of the public Understanding these phenomena as well as the politics that underscore them is key to understanding not only the present status of the public theatre in France but also how theatre as a publicly funded institution interacts with the notion of the plurality rather than the homogeneity of its publics Student Politics in Africa Luescher, Thierry M., Klemencic, Manja, 2016-05-12 The second volume of the African Higher Education Dynamics Series brings together the research of an international network of higher education scholars with interest in higher education and student politics in Africa Most authors are early career academics who teach and conduct research in universities across the continent and who came together for a research project and related workshops and a symposium on student representation in African higher education governance The book includes theoretical chapters on student organising student activism and representation chapters on historical and current developments in student politics in Anglophone and Francophone Africa and in depth case studies on student representation and activism in a cross section of universities and countries The book provides a unique resource for academics university leaders and student affairs professionals as well as student leaders and policy makers in Africa and elsewhere The Couscous Chronicles Azzedine T. Downes, 2024-02-02 Possum Walk Jeannie Edwards, 2022-12-31 The photo is of Possum Walk School in 1989 After the school was no longer utilized as a school it served as a small barn housing animals and storage for hay The lean to at the side of the building was a later addition The era was loosely called the dirty thirties because there was a national depression Blanche is a young lady with a two year teaching certificate She is ready for her first job and prepared to teach at the elementary grade level However she discovers a tight job market and takes temporary employment until an unexpected teaching opportunity is presented Though it isn't what she anticipated or hoped for she gratefully accepts never doubting that as a teacher she has much to teach the children In the days ahead she becomes aware that her perceptions of what she would give the children were not entirely realistic for the children of Possum Walk School had much to teach their teacher Combined Statement of the Receipts and Expenditures, Balances, Etc., of the United States United States. Department of the Treasury. Division of Bookkeeping and Warrants, 1935 Arts and Politics in Senegal, 1960-1996 Tracy David Snipe, 1998 This book explores the dynamic relationship between politics and the arts in the planning and implementation of Senegalese cultural policy since 1960 It examines political reactions to the arts in Senegal and compares and contrasts the respective cultural policies of President Leopold Sedar Senghor and President Abdou Diouf An overview of the French colonial administration and cultural policy in
