Annie Gwen Lilly Pam Tulip:

Annie, Gwen, Lilly, Pam and Tulip Jamaica Kincaid, Eric Fischl, 1986 Annie, Gwen, Lilly, Pam, and Tulip Jamaica Kincaid, Eric Fischl, 1989 A lovely story about girls coming of age written by the West Indian writer Jamaica Kincaid and illustrated by the American painter and printmaker Eric Fischl 9 color reproductions Jamaica Kincaid Moira Ferguson, 1994 As a writer who has been quoted as saying she writes to save her life that is she couldn't write she would be a revolutionary Antiguan novelist Jamaica Kincaid translates this passion into searing exhilarating prose Her weaving of history autobiography fiction and polemic has won her a large readership In this first book length study of her work Moira Ferguson examines all of Kincaid's writing up to 1992 focusing especially on their entwinement of personal and political identity In doing so she draws a parallel between the dynamics of the mother daughter relationship in Kincaid's fiction and the more political relationship of the colonizer and the colonized Ferguson calls this effect the doubled mother a conception of motherhood as both colonial and biological Desire Between Women in Caribbean Literature K. Valens, 2013-12-04 Relations between women like the branches and roots of the mangrove twist around across and within others as they pervade Caribbean letters Desire between Women in Caribbean Literature elucidates the place of desire between women in Caribbean letters compelling readers to rethink how to read the structures and practices of sexuality Postcolonial Youth in Contemporary British Fiction, 2021-07-19 The concepts of youth and the postcolonial both inhabit a liminal locus where new ways of being in the world are rehearsed and struggle for recognition against the impositions of dominant power structures Departing from this premise the present volume focuses on the experience of postcolonial youngsters in contemporary Britain as rendered in fiction thus envisioning the postcolonial as a site of fruitful and potentially transformative friction between different identitary variables or sociocultural interpellations In so doing this volume provides varied evidence of the ability of literature and of the short story genre in particular to represent and swiftly respond to a rapidly changing world as well as to the new socio cultural realities and conflicts affecting our current global order and the generations to come Contributors are Isabel M Andr's Cuevas Isabel Carrera Suarez Claire Chambers Blanka Grzegorzczuk Bettina Jansen Indrani Karmakar Carmen Lara Rallo Laura Mar a Lojo Rodriguez Noem Pereira Ares G rald Pr her Susanne Reichl Carla Rodriguez Gonzalez Jorge Sacido Romero Karima Thomas and Laura Torres Z iga Encyclopedia of the British Short Story Andrew Maunder, 2015-04-22 Provides a comprehensive reference to short fiction from Great Britain Ireland and the British Commonwealth featuring some of the most popular writers and works Jamaica Kincaid's Writings of History Antonia Purk, 2023-09-18 Jamaica Kincaid's works consistently explore how colonial history affects contemporary everyday lives Throughout her novels short fiction and non fictional essays Kincaid's texts engage with history through its medial representations which are starkly determined by colonial perspectives This study examines the entanglements of temporalities in current perceptions of the past and how literary text intervenes in historical consciousness With a focus on the media text image and the human body the chapters of this book demonstrate how Kincaid's poetics of impermanence counter colonial representations of history with strategies of ambiguity repetition and redirection Kincaid's texts repeat and revise aspects of colonial history a process that decenters the totality of historical colonial ideology and replaces it with self-determined versions of the past through a multiplication of perspectives and voices Jamaica Kincaid Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2008-07-23 Changing her name early in her career because her parents disapproved of her writing Jamaica Kincaid crossed audiences to embrace feminist American postcolonial and world literature This book offers an introduction and guided overview of her characters plots humor symbols and classic themes Designed for students fans librarians and teachers the 84 A to Z entries combine commentary from interviewers feminist historians and book critics with numerous citations from primary and secondary sources and comparative literature The companion features a chronology of Kincaid's life West Indies heritage and works and includes a character name chart The Cambridge Guide to Women's Writing in English Lorna Sage,1999-09-30 This Guide aims to consolidate and epitomise the re-reading of women's writing that has gone on in the last twenty-five years This is an opportunity for stock-taking a timely project when so much writing has been rediscovered reclaimed and republished There are entries on writers on individual texts and on general terms genres and movements all printed in a single alphabetical sequence The earliest written documents in medieval English the visionary writings of Julian of Norwich and Margery Kempe are covered in an historical and geographical sweep that takes us up to the present day The book reflects the spread of literacy the history of colonisation and the development of post-colonial cultures using and changing the English language The entries are written by contributors from all the countries covered The result is a work of reference with a unique feeling for the vitality wealth and diversity of women's writing The Greatest Black Achievers in History Sylvia Lovina Chidi,2014-06-13 This book summarizes the lives of the great black people that have made great contributions to the lives of many Worldwide The book has brief detailed biographies of black activists scientists educators entertainers musicians inventors politicians authors sportsmen women and others who have surpassed the normal to make historical marks on society The biographical account of each individual provides relevant dates events and achievements by the individual There are pictures and excellent drawings that highlight particular moments in history This is one of the greatest pieces of work on black history and it will appeal to everyone including students groups universities libraries schools and anyone interested in history of black people in the World My Favorite Plant Jamaica Kincaid,2025-09-23 A delightful compendium of writing on plants The passion for gardening and the passion for words come together in this inspired anthology a collection of essays on topics as diverse as beans and roses by writers who garden and by gardeners who write Among the contributors are Christopher Lloyd on poppies Marina Warner who remembers the Guine rose and Henri Cole who offers poems on the bearded iris and on peonies There is also an explanation of the sexiness of castor beans from Michael Pollan and an essay from Maxine Kumin on how as Henry David Thoreau put it one makes the
