The annotated Christmas Carol Charles Dickens, 1976 A Christmas Carol Charles Dickens, 2021-01-31 This is the annotated version of A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens Once upon a time of all the good days in the year on Christmas Eve old Scrooge sat busy in his counting house It was cold bleak biting weather foggy withal and he could hear the people in the court outside go wheezing up and down beating their hands upon their breasts and stamping their feet upon the pavement stones to warm them The city clocks had only just gone three but it was quite dark already it had not been light all day and candles were flaring in the windows of the neighbouring offices like ruddy smears upon the palpable brown air The fog came pouring in at every chink and keyhole and was so dense without that although the court was of the narrowest the houses opposite were mere phantoms To see the dingy cloud come drooping down obscuring everything one might have thought that Nature lived hard by and was brewing on a large scale A Christmas Carol.
