it fine or be it wet the children try to sell their carvings About twenty years since you might have seen one little boy standing apart from the others but evidently very desirous to dispose of his wares He looked grave and sad and held his little tray tightly with both hands as if he was afraid of losing it This serious look and his small size caused him to be much noticed by travelers who often called him and purchased many of his toys though he did not know why he was so favored His grandfather lived two miles off among the mountains where he did his carving He had a cabinet full of the things he had made There were nut crackers knives and forks boxes carved with leaves and chamois and many toys for children but little Rudy cared for nothing so much as for an old gun hanging from a rafter in the ceiling for his grandfather had told him it should be his own when he was big enough to know how to use it
